156th Annual Convention

Journal of Proceedings

CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, PHILADELPHIA,
MONDAY, MAY 6, 1940, 5 P. M.

The One Hundred and Fifty-sixth Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania assembled as above in accordance with the Resolution of the Last Convention.

The Bishop of the Diocese opened the Session with the Creed and Prayers.

A Quorum being present, the Rev. Richard J. Morris was elected Secretary and the Rev. John R. Huggins appointed Assistant Secretary of the Convention.

The Rev. J. M. Niblo presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE DISPATCH OF BUSINESS

which was adopted:

Your Committee presents herewith its suggested program for the dispatch of business during the Convention with some necessary changes from that mailed to the Deputies.

In order to expedite the order of business, your Committee suggests that all Reports be made by Title where feasible, and as an effort is to be made to transact the work of Convention in one full day, that discussion be curtailed as far as possible.

Should the Business of the Convention be not completed at 5.30 P. M. on Tuesday, May 7, 1940, a Recess shall be taken at that hour until 7.45 P. M. Should further time be required, Convention shall meet again on Wednesday, May 8, 1940, at 9.30 A. M.

The Rev. C. H. Long presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ARRANGEMENTS

which was adopted.

The Secretary read the Canon of Courtesy, as follows:

Clergymen canonically resident in this Diocese but not entitled to vote in the Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses of this Church, Candidates for Holy Orders in this Church, Wardens of Missions other than those entitled to send Deputies, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, including the Lay Members of the Standing Committee, the officers of the Executive Council and the Superintendent of the Philadelphia Protestant Episcopal City Mission, though not members, shall be admitted to seats and have a voice in the Convention, but not the right to vote.

The Secretary read the Report:

The Secretary of the Convention reports

That during the past year he has fulfilled his duties as prescribed by the Constitution and Canons so far as possible.

That under date of March 3 he sent out the Calls and other Documents for the Annual Convention.

That on February 1 only 41 of the Annual Reports of the Parishes and Missions had been returned out of the 225 due, many of them being very incomplete. He would ask once more that the Report blank be completely filled out, as all the figures are required for the Report to the General Convention and are a permanent record of the whole activities of the Parishes and Missions. This is the Report of the Parish and not merely of the Accounting Warden.

That boxes for the Registration of the Clerical and Lay Deputies have been placed in the vestibules of the Church and all Deputies should register at once.

That the following is Unfinished Business from the Annual Convention of 1939:

(1) Report of the Diocesan Campaign Fund.
(2) Report by the Committee on Memorial to Bishop Garland.
(3) Report of the Committee on Amendments to the Constitution of the General Convention.
(4) Report of the Committee on Amendments to the Constitution of the Diocese.
(5) Report of Committee on Relation of the Convention to the People of the Diocese.
(6) Report of Committee on Canons in re Certified Accountant Audit and on Revision of Standing Resolutions.

That the following Parishes have not sent in Certificates for the Election of Deputies and therefore have no Lay Deputies in this Convention:

S. John, New London; S. Elizabeth; S. James the Less; S. John Chrysostom; Christ, Eddington; S. Stephen, Wissahickon; S. Bartholomew, Wissinoming; S. Luke, Kensington; S. Mary, Philadelphia; S. Paul, Overbrook.

That of the 29 Missions entitled to Mission Lay Deputies the following have not sent in Certificates and have no Lay Deputies in this Convention: Advent, Hatboro; Advent, Philadelphia; Holy Redeemer, Philadelphia; Incarnation, Morrisville; L'Emmanuello, Philadelphia; S. Anne, Willow Grove; S. Cyprian, Elmwood; S. Faith, Brookline; S. Gabriel, Feltonville; S. George, Ardmore; S. George, Richmond; S. John, Essington, S. Mary Annunciation, Philadelphia; Trinity, Collingdale; Trinity, Gulph; Transfiguration, Philadelphia.

That of the 18 Chapels and Missions entitled to Lay Representatives the following have not sent in Certificates and have no Lay Representatives in this Convention: Christ, Upper Merion; Holy Comforter Chapel; Mediator Chapel; Nativity Chapel; Phillips Brooks Chapel; Prince of Peace Chapel; S. Andrew Chapel, West Manayunk; S. Mary Chapel; S. Michael Chapel; S. Peter, Weldon.

The Secretary reports further:

That the following Parishes have not sent in Parish Reports: S. James, Kingsessing; S. Luke, Kensington; S. Matthias, Philadelphia; S. Peter, Great Valley.

That the following Parishes have not paid the required Assessments for 1939: Christ, Franklinville; Christ, Pottstown; Good Shepherd, Kensington; S. Bartholomew, Wissinoming; S. James, Hestonville; S. John Chrysostom; S. John Free; S. Jude and the Nativity; S. Luke, Kensington; S. Mark, Honey Brook; S. Matthias, Philadelphia; S. Stephen, Wissahickon; Trinity, Ambler.

That of the Missions and Chapels, which sent in Certificates for a Lay Deputy, or for a Lay Representative, the following have not sent in Parish Reports: S. Michael and All Angels Chapel; S. Peter, Weldon, and that the following have not paid the Episcopal Fund Assessment: All Saints, Fallsington; S. Joseph, Gladwyn; S. Mary, Chester; S. Michael and All Angels Chapel.

That no Parishes or Missions have requested relief from paying Assessments to the Department of Finance, in accordance with the provision adopted in 1938.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne offered the following Resolution which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the right of Representation in this Convention of those Parishes and Missions which have not sent in Parochial Reports, or have not paid the Episcopal or the Diocesan Expense Assessments be declared forfeited.

The Secretary reports further:

That he has received from the Secretary of the Province, actions adopted at the meeting last October for submission to the Diocese, which have been summarized and mailed to the Deputies (Appendix R page 360), as follows:

(1) A Resolution calling for a special effort to study the proposals for a Concordat with the Presbyterian Church.
(2) A Report on the matter of restricting the power of Parishes to incur Debt.
(3) The establishment of Clergy Placement Bureau.

On motion, the Chair was requested to appoint a Committee of five to consider the second and third matters and report to the Convention of 1941.

The President appointed the following Committees:

Claims of the Clergy to Seats:
The Rev. George Copeland — The Rev. C. B. Dubell
The Rev. J. R. Logan, Sr.

Claims of Laity to Seats:
Mr. W. I. Rutter, Jr. — Mr. J. L. Evans
Mr. W. M. Kalmey

THE COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS presented the Report:

That in accord with Standing Order V, the Preliminary Ballot was sent out to 249 Clerical Deputies according to a list prepared by the Ecclesiastical Authority as entitled to vote and to the Rectors of the 138 Parishes in Union with the Convention (3 each) for the use of the Lay Deputies and to Vicars 1 each for the Mission Lay Deputies.

That from the 62 Preliminary Ballots returned, the Official Ballot was prepared and sent to the Clerical Deputies and to the Lay Deputies whose election had been certified to the Secretary of the Convention under date of April 26th, and to the Secretary of the Convention.

That the Elections will be held in the usual manner in the Church House, the Clergy voting in the Assembly Room and the Lay Deputies in the room adjoining. The first Ballot will be taken at 10 A. M. on May 7th.

The Committee would report further that the following who were nominated on the Preliminary Ballot have withdrawn their names:

Member of the Executive Council: Rev. C. W. Shreiner.

Deputy to General Convention: Rev. C. W. Shreiner.

For the Committee, RICHARD J. MORRIS, Chairman.

The Secretary reported the Nominations for Offices to be filled by Election, as certified by the Committee on Elections: (see pages 38, 39, 45, 46, 47, 48).

Additional Nominations being called for, the following were duly nominated:

STANDING COMMITTEE: The Revs. S. V. Wilcox, J. W. Twelves.

CANONS OF THE CATHEDRAL: The Revs. Arthur Murray, J. K. Shryock.

DEPUTY TO GENERAL CONVENTION: The Revs. R. W. Bagnall, E. H. Carhart, C. H. Long, S. V. Wilcox; Messrs. L. B. Runk, I. S. Raspin, C. E. Beury, C. C. Morris.

ALTERNATE DEPUTY TO GENERAL CONVENTION: Mr. E. L. Van Roden.

On motion, the Nominations were closed and the Secretary was instructed to cast the Ballot where only a sufficient number were nominated; which having been done, the President declared the following duly elected:

LAY MEMBERS OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE: Messrs. W. P. Barba, W. H. DuBarry, Spencer Ervin, S. F. Houston, P. S. Williams.

LAY MEMBERS OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL: Messrs. G. B. Hawkes, C. F. Hoffman, Lardner Howell, R. A. Morgan, J. A. Pearson, T. B. Stockham.

DIRECTORS OF THE CHURCH FOUNDATION for three years: The Revs. F. W. Blatz, Franklin Joiner, D.D.; Messrs. E. B. McCarthy, R. A. Morgan, H. R. Robins.

CANONS OF THE CATHEDRAL for four years: Messrs. John Kremer, J. H. Rankin. For three years, The Rev. J. H. Jacobson.

CHURCH ADVOCATE for three years: Mr. J. L. Evans.

BOARD OF TRIERS for three years: The Revs. A. J. Arkin, G. W. Barnes, J. F. Bullitt, George Copeland, A. A. Ewing, T. L. Gossling, R. B. Green, J. E. Hill, Waldemar Jansen, J. R. Logan, Sr., D.D.; Messrs. C. H. Long, George Mair, G. R. Miller, W. N. Parker, W. C. Pugh, B. J. Rudderow, J. W. B Stewart, E. S. Thomas, H. A. Walton, J. O. Warfield.

BOARD OF CONTROL DIOCESAN LIBRARY for three years: The Revs. G. G. Bartlett, S.T.D., Crosswell McBee, D.D., W. C. Pugh; Messrs. T. B. Clement, W. I. Rutter, Jr., C. R. Woodruff.

TREASURER OF THE CHRISTMAS FUND for three years: Mr. A. V. Morton.

TRUSTEES OF THE CHRISTMAS FUND for three years: Messrs. F. R. Drayton, Rowland Evans, C. W. Morris, F. E. Newbold, Jr.

TREASURER OF THE DIOCESE for three years: Mr. A. V. Morton.

The Rev. D. C. Colony, Rector S. Luke, Kensington, stated that despite the statement of the Secretary that they had not been received he had mailed some weeks ago the Parish Report, the List of Lay Deputies, and had arranged to pay the Parish Assessments, when an emergency arose which required other use of the moneys, and asked for Restoration of that Parish to a Seat in this Convention.

The matter was referred to the Committee on Claims of Laity to Seats, and since none were present, the Chair appointed Messrs. W. P. Barba, L. B. Runk and G. W. Wilkins to act.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne for the COMMITTEE ON PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION of the General Church, as submitted in 1937 to be acted on in 1940, presented the Majority Report.

Mr. G. B. Hawkes presented a Minority Report, objecting to the adoption of the proposed changes.

On motion it was ordered that copies of both Reports be made and given to each of the Deputies to General Convention for their guidance.

(Appendix W, page 346)

The Rev. J. M. Niblo presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON CLERICAL SALARIES AND PENSIONS

and offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the Committee be authorized to assess the Parishes for the work of the Commission for 1941 in such amount as shall seem necessary but for not more than $16,000.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne offered the Resolutions in re Estate Helen N. Hotchkin, deceased, and in re Estate Clara H. Matlack, deceased, each of which was adopted (see Appendix V, page 371).

The Rev. C. H. Long offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the Secretary be instructed to print the Christian names as well as the Surnames of nominees appearing on the Official Ballot.

The Convention took a Recess at 6.15 P. M.

At 8.15 P. M. a Diocesan Mass Meeting was held in the Church of The Holy Trinity, at which time the Bishop of the Diocese read the Annual Address, and the Sermon was preached by the Right Reverend Wyatt Brown, D.D., Litt.D., LL.D., Bishop of Harrisburg.

The Offering for Diocesan Missionary Work amounted to $140.71.

9 A. M., TUESDAY, MAY 7, 1940

The Convention reassembled as above.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Bishop of The Diocese, assisted by the Secretary of The Convention, the Rev. E. F. Salmon, D.D., and the Rev. P. C. Vanderheil. The Offering for Diocesan Missionary Work amounted to $27.37.

The Bishop called the Convention to order at 10 A. M.

Mr. L. B. Runk, for the Committee on Claims of Laity to Seats, offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

1. The Committee recommends in the case of Missions that, for this year only, Certificates or Letters of Appointment from the Priest in Charge be considered equivalent to formal Certificates of Election as prescribed by the Canon, provided that the other Convention requirements be complied with: and provided also that all in default be notified that next year the provisions regarding elections will be strictly enforced.

This restored to membership Advent Mission, Hatboro; Holy Trinity Mission, Lansdale; S. Anne Mission, Willow Grove.

2. The Committee recommends that any Parish or Mission Parochial Report, which any representative of the same shall state of his own knowledge has been duly mailed, shall be treated as if duly received by the Secretary of the Convention, provided that the Parish or Mission concerned shall agree to file a duly executed duplicate Report within a week from this date.

This restored S. Peter, Great Valley.

3. The Committee recommends in the case of S. Luke, Kensington, that in view of their claim to have mailed a Parish Report to the Secretary of the Convention in due course, the same will be treated as if received by the Secretary, provided that a duly signed duplicate copy thereof be filed within a week from this date; and in view of the loss which they suffered by an act of God, and which has resulted in their not having paid their Assessments for 1939, that their Lay Deputies be seated, provided that before the said Deputies take their Seats, they and their Rector execute a written agreement to pay all arrears of 1939 Assessments to the Diocese within thirty days from this date.

The COMMITTEE ON CLAIMS OF CLERGY TO SEATS reported "No Claims received."

The Polls were declared open and the Convention took a Recess at 10.10 A. M.

The Convention reassembled at 10.45 A. M., the Bishop in the Chair.

The COMMITTEE ON DISPATCH OF BUSINESS presented a Revised Order, which was adopted.

Mr. A. V. Morton presented the

REPORT OF THE TREASURER OF THE DIOCESE

(Appendix E, page 256)

Mr. L. B. Runk presented the

REPORT OF THE RELATION OF THE CONVENTION TO THE DIOCESE

and offered an Amendment to the Constitution, which was adopted to lie over to the next Convention as follows:

Amend Art. IV, Paragraph 2, of the Constitution by repealing the words beginning, "Each regularly established," and ending with the word "congregation," and substituting therefor the following:

"Each regularly established parish of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese, now a member, or which shall hereafter be admitted a member of the Convention, may send to the Convention a Lay Deputy or Deputies, Communicants of this Church elected by the Vestry of said Parish from their own number, or from the congregation, or from their Chapel congregations, not exceeding three, except as hereinafter provided. The Convention may, from time to time, provide by canon for additional Deputies, not exceeding two in number from any Parish, in such proportion to communicants as the Convention may determine. But any canon fixing or changing the proportion shall not take effect until after the adjournment of the session at which it is adopted."

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne presented the

in re the Relation of the Convention to the Diocese and the proposed Amendment to the Constitution by the Committee; suggesting a substitute Form:

(Appendix Q, page 356)

The Rev. W. M. Sharp presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHARTERS

as follows:

The Committee on Charters has considered the Charter of "The Memorial Church of Saint Paul" located at Fifteenth and Porter Streets. The Charter was obtained from the Court without the prior approval of the Charter Committee or The Bishop and Standing Committee. The Charter was submitted too late to be acted on prior to the last Convention.

The Convention finds that in Section 2 of Article IX of the Charter it requires merely the approval of a majority of the congregation for the transfer of property of the corporation whereas the model Charter requires a majority of the vestry and the members of the corporation. It is the opinion of the Committee on Charters and the Standing Committee that Section 2 of Article IX should be brought into conformity with the model Charter. When this is accomplished the Standing Committee is ready to approve the Charter. In order to avoid further delay the Committee on Charters offers the following resolution:

RESOLVED, That the Charter of "The Memorial Church of Saint Paul" be approved subject to the change of Section 2, Article IX, to conform with the Model Charter and the final approval of the Standing Committee.

The Resolution was adopted.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne presented the

and offered the following Resolution: "Repeal Canon XII and substitute the following" (see Appendix P, page 346).

On Motion of Mr. L. B. Runk, Mr. G. B. Hawkes was given the privilege of the Floor and addressed the Convention.

The Proposed Amendment to Canon XII was adopted.

Mr. Hartshorne continued the REPORT and offered the following Resolution (Appendix P, page 346).

Amend Canon IV, by adding Paragraphs 4 and 5.

The Resolution was adopted.

Mr. Hartshorne continued the REPORT, presenting the Proposed Amendment to the Article IV of the Constitution, offered by Mr. G. B. Hawkes in 1939 (JOURNAL, page 45) for final action and offered the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, That the matter be postponed indefinitely.

The Motion was adopted.

The Order of the Day having arrived, the Rev. J. K. Shryock presented by Title the

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON EVANGELISM

(Appendix N, page 343)

The Rev. Dr. G. E. Barnes, of The National Christian Mission, addressed the Convention.

The Rev. J. K. Shryock offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the Convention expresses its appreciation of the Address by Dr. Barnes, and that the Joint Commission of the Forward Movement and Evangelism present to the Parishes and Missions such plans and religious projects as will enable this Diocese to do its share of the work which has been presented to us.

The Rev. S. V. Wilcox presented by Title the

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON THE FORWARD MOVEMENT

(Appendix T, page 368)

The Chairman bade the Convention to Noon Day Prayers.

The Secretary read the following telegram:

THE RT. REV. FRANCIS M. TAITT, S.T.D.
BISHOP OF PENNSYLVANIA:

Through your Diocesan Convention, may I express to you and your people my sincere best wishes and a call to go forward in the important year ahead. The last decade has been one of darkness in the world. We must now set our faces to the new decade before us determined to turn to victory what now seems defeat.

Christ came at a time when the world seemed doomed. God choose that as the fullness of time for Jesus to come and through His life and work and sacrifice on the cross He reversed what seemed to be a current of defeat moving in human society. The Church can do the same today if she but wills it. I know we can count on the Diocese of Pennsylvania doing her share.

H. ST. GEORGE TUCKER,
Presiding Bishop.

The Order of the Day having arrived the Rev. R. T. Lyford in the absence of the Executive Secretary, who was ill, presented the

Of the Women of the Diocese

Charlotte Harding Shepherd Houston, whom I have known and admired for many years and who has been interested in the work at Old St. Peter's Church, Sunday School and St. Peter's House; in the Church Training and Deaconess

House; in St. Martha's House and in the House of Rest for the Aged, now rests in St. Michael and All Angels Chapel of the Cathedral Church of Christ.

Ellen Swan Dobbin Howland, who went down on the Athenia.
Amy Gwynn McCrae, in charge of the Supply Bureau.
Florence Dinning Woodruff, foremost in many charities.
Louisa Hodge Phillips, President of Woman's Auxiliary, All Saints, Torresdale, for many years.
Elizabeth Mockridge, daughter of Rev. Dr. Mockridge and active Church worker.
Leila Ophelia Barnes.
Margaret McGrory, mother of the Rev. John R. McGrory.

all of whom have been most faithful and are worthy of reverent mention.

I submit herewith my Diary and Official Acts, together with a Summary of Statistics, as follows:

The Year and A Decade

SOMEWHAT over ten years ago, when I was consecrated Bishop, I felt that at my age my term of office would be short; but I hoped to give assistance to a sick and overworked Bishop, and help make his closing days happier. This I had the satisfaction of doing. I prayed that if God would spare me ten years, I would try to accomplish something worthwhile. God has spared me ten years, and with an average of six speaking engagements each week for nine months of each year, I have only been obliged to omit two engagements and these were due to loss of voice. I feel that I am in as good health today as when I was consecrated to the episcopate. For this I thank God and take courage.

I want to give you an account of the work of the past year and then a brief summary of the work of the past ten years.

It was a great joy to me, that our Church met its Expectation with the National Council and, in addition, completed the $30,000 that I had voluntarily assumed to aid the starving Chinese, as well as paying $22,216 which we lacked of our Expectation of 1938. Through the energy of the Field Department and under the able leadership of the chairman, Dr. Thomas S. Gates, president of the University of Pennsylvania, the whole amount sought for was obtained and $6614.74 which remained over our obligations was set aside as an emergency fund to save the interest which would be paid to banks for borrowed sums. In former years Pennsylvania gave very much larger amounts to missions, but these sums have become smaller; though in nearly every year we gave a larger percentage of our quota than any of the larger dioceses. The last year of Bishop Garland's life when the depression had settled down upon us, the Church borrowed $15,000 to meet her obligations to National Council. Then in the first year of my administration we borrowed $14,000. To pay these borrowed amounts kept the Church in distress until these obligations were cancelled through the Diocesan Contributors' Fund. The Diocese is deeply indebted to the Rev. Dr. Shreiner who, notwithstanding his great work at the Church Farm School, voluntarily spent seven years and did this great work for the Diocese. He established the Diocesan Contributors' Fund and through this means collected nearly $500,000. I hope that with the coming years, we will be able to reassume these larger amounts.

I could not begin to speak about our work without giving tribute to the large number of noble laymen and laywomen who so generously and effectively and with no financial remuneration give of their time and labor. Without such persons as these the work of this Diocese would be impossible. I think of our chancellor, the Hon. Roland S. Morris, who is called upon so frequently and whose advice is so valuable; our treasurer, Mr. Arthur V. Morton, who gives so much of his valuable time in our service; our vice-president of the Executive Council, Spencer Ervin, Esq., who practically lives at the Church House; the officers of the Woman's Auxiliary, Mrs. Edward Ingersoll, president, and Miss Julia Hill, president of the Juniors, and the former presidents, Mrs. George Woodward and Mrs. John Edwin Hill and others. Then those six outstanding deans of the convocations, each of whom has labors almost the equal of our missionary Bishops as well as a very large parochial work, that could claim a man's whole time. The Diocese is under deep obligation to Deans Hill, Stockman, Taylor, Eder, Wilcox and Groton. I doubt whether any other diocese has such a galaxy of faithful and efficient workers.

Anniversaries, Dedications and Improvements

ANNIVERSARIES, improvements and dedications in the past year have been many. I have been present at the following anniversaries:

On May 10th the 25th anniversary of Dr. Toop as Rector of Holy Apostles Parish;

On May 14th the 40th anniversary of St. Paul's, Overbrook;

On May 19th the 30th anniversary of Dr. Logan as Vicar of St. Simon the Cyrenian Chapel;

On June 18th the 25th anniversary of the Rev. P. R. R. Reinhardt's ordination to the priesthood;

On October 4th I celebrated the 10th anniversary of my consecration to the Episcopate;

On October 16th the 150th anniversary of the Prayer Book, at old Christ Church;

On October 22nd the 80th anniversary of the founding of St. Alban's, Roxborough;

On October 24th the Rev. C. H. Reese's 20th anniversary as rector of St. Matthew's, Philadelphia;

On November 7th the 50th anniversary of the founding of the parish of St. Elisabeth's Church was celebrated in conjunction with the 53rd anniversary of L'Emmanuello congregation;

On November 26th the 95th anniversary of Emmanuel Church, Holmesburg;

On December 10th the 80th anniversary of the founding of St. Timothy's, Roxborough.

At all of these I either preached or made an address.

The following anniversaries occurred in the Diocese, but the Bishop was unable to attend:

On September 24th Calvary, Conshohocken, celebrated its 80th anniversary;

On October 22nd Advent, Hatboro, celebrated its 50th anniversary;

On October 29th St. Mary's, Wayne, celebrated its 50th anniversary;

On October 29th All Saints, Norristown, celebrated its 58th anniversary;

On November 1st St. Bartholomew's, Philadelphia, celebrated the 40th anniversary of the founding of the parish.

On June 9th I instituted the Rev. Melville B. Gurley as rector of St. John's Church, Cynwyd.

I dedicated:

On June 5th shrubbery at St. Faith's, Brookline, in memory of Mr. C. C. Harrison;

On June 24th an altar in St. Mary's Chapel at the Cathedral Church of Christ, Roxborough, in memory of Florence Prall Scull;

On July 2nd a baptistry at St. Paul's Church, Chester;

On November 1 the Bishop Garland memorial at the Cathedral Church of Christ, Roxborough;

On December 17th a memorial window at Holy Nativity, Rockledge.

The following memorials were given:

A memorial window at St. Paul's Church, Overbrook, in memory of Clara Wilson Knepley Johnson;

A memorial window at St. Mary's Church, Ardmore, in memory of Harriet Gibbons Williams;

An altar frontal and hangings at the Covenant, Philadelphia, in memory of the Rev. George Warrington Lamb, M.D.;

At St. Peter's Church, Germantown, eight memorial windows depicting the life of Christ, in memory of Ethel M. Coxe, Mrs. Anne B. Cowperthwait, J. Lee Patton, Lewis S. Gibbs, Robert and Ellen C. Hearst, Mary Camilla Bisset, William R. Eisenhower, Joseph Rawlings Donnelly;

At St. Paul's Church, Chester, a memorial window in memory of the mother of the rector and the mother of the Bishop;

A set of candelabra for each altar at Christ Church and St. Michael's, one in memory of Samuel Newman Baxter and the other in memory of William Seyffert;

Three memorial gifts at the Resurrection, Philadelphia, a bronze tablet in memory of the Rev. James O. McIlhenny, D.D., a hanging lamp in memory of Miss Elizabeth Albertson; and a processional cross in memory of John and Mary Zimmerling;

A pulpit lamp and two flags were blessed in St. James' Church, Prospect Park;

The cornerstone of St. John's Mission, West Oak Lane, was laid.

The following improvements were made:

A new chancel window at the Good Shepherd, Germantown;

At Calvary, Conshohocken, the property was renovated, all debt paid, and a gift of $1000 was added to the endowment in memory of Mrs. Charles Lukens;

At St. George's, Richmond, the old floor was removed and new asphalt tile flooring laid by the men of the parish at a cost of $575; the pews were also restored;

At Christ Church and St. Michael's, Germantown, the interior of the church and the entire choir room was painted; new lighting was installed; the old windows were replaced and also new cushions and carpet bought; and the exterior of the parish house was painted;

At All Saints, Norristown, the exterior of the church was renovated, the roof repaired and windows reconditioned;

At St. Faith's, Brookline, the church was painted inside and outside; the reredos and paneling in the chancel were done over;

At St. Simon the Cyrenian's the pipe organ was enlarged;

The Bishop's Chapel in the Church House has been greatly improved, being newly painted; new lights were installed and new carpet laid; gifts of a new dossal, altar linens and frontal and the gift of an ancient and beautiful picture of the Christ add a wonderful charm.

The following bequests and gifts were made:

A large bequest of Mary A. Combs made possible the renovating of the sleeping quarters on the fourth floor of the Seamen's Church Institute and paid off the second mortgage on Institute property;

A bequest of $1000 for the church endowment of St. Luke's, Chester, was made by Mary Canning Bing, communicant for over 50 years, directress of Altar Guild, choir leader and treasurer of the Church School;

A gift of Miss H. Daisy Smith was made for repairs of the old church at St. Martin's, Marcus Hook. The Sun Oil Company restored the church bell in the belfry. This bell is older than the Liberty Bell.

Energy and enthusiasm once again seek expression at St. Elisabeth's Church, where the young people's group are renovating St. Saviour Chapel, the Mortuary Chapel and the Crypt. All the artisans of the parish—carpenters, plasterers, painters—and a planning committee are working to beautify the property and extend its usefulness in the community. All the work must be done without labor cost. The Crypt will serve as a kindergarten room when finished; digging out the old cellar will extend the club room; and the garden will also be transformed for the beauty and joy of the neighborhood. All this reminds us of the venture of 1937 when a $1500 renovation job was done for $330, raised under the leadership of Father Roseboro. The labor cost was only 75 cents.

Mr. William White, after completing forty-six years on the vestry of Christ Church, Philadelphia, resigned. He served as secretary, accounting warden, and as a member of the Board of Managers of Christ Church Hospital. Mr. White was faithful and tireless in his duty as a vestryman and never failed to sacrifice his time and energy to the maintenance, development and growth of all the church activities.

The following statistics for the year at the Galilee Mission are interesting to note. Attendance at chapel and Church school, 49,215; meals served to over 97,000; lodgings given to 51,000 men; employment secured for 386 men.

Department of Religious Education

GREAT strides in the field of religious education have been made in the last ten years in this Diocese. The Normal School continues to grow and in the past year two conferences, Summer and Winter, have been inaugurated. Over 350 adults attended the Winter Conference held on five Tuesday nights during January and February at Church House and Holy Trinity Parish House. One hundred and twenty-nine persons registered for the first Diocesan Summer Conference held last June at Ursinus College. The faculty of both conferences were outstanding and contributed much to their success.

The great possibilities in Vacation Church Schools are being realized by many of our parishes. Three years ago we had eight in the Diocese and last year increased the number to 22. The department now conducts each Spring an institute for four or five weeks to train leaders in this valuable work, and it also will give assistance to those parishes which need it, either financially or in providing leadership.

The Church School-by-Mail which has just ended its first year under the supervision of the Department of Religious Education has had an amazing growth. Starting in January, 1939, with less than 40 children, the enrollment now totals 159. The worker in charge, whose salary for one year is being paid by the Woman's Auxiliary, has done a magnificent work in this field.

The children of the Diocese have given in the past ten years to the Bishop's Bricks Fund, now known as the Advent Offering, more than $12,000. This offering is used entirely for work in the Diocese. Through their Lenten Offerings in the past ten years, nearly half a million dollars has been given for the work of the Church by the children. While there has been a decrease in the amount of the offering since 1930, as in all our giving, last year the total amount being $41,484, compared to $75,729 in 1930, nevertheless last year's amount was $20,000 more than the offering of any other Diocese. Pennsylvania has the largest number of teachers and pupils of any Diocese in the entire Church.

We are soon to celebrate the 125th anniversary of the founding of the first Church Sunday School in Pennsylvania. In the Fall of 1814, the Rev. Jackson Kemper and the Rev. James Milnor, Bishop White's assistants, began an afternoon Sunday School in Commissioners Hall in Northern Liberties, Philadelphia. This was the first Sunday School officially incorporated by any religious organization in America.

The Divinity School

THE new work of our Divinity School, begun three years ago, continues to gain distinction and recognition. The first class under the new plan of theological education graduates this June. This has been a bold venture of faith. Under the leadership of the Very Rev. Allen Evans and with the active co-operation of a devoted faculty, the Joint Boards of the school and a group of interested clergy and lay people, real progress has been made.

Without sacrificing training in those canonical studies required in a theological curriculum, the clinical training course has quite met our expectations. This special work upon which we are placing a certain emphasis is constantly gaining the interest and commendation of thoughtful educators and others. I am happy to be able to report the progress made and to assure you that we can approach the future with confidence. The relation of pastoral clinical training to the theological curriculum is being recognized by the other seminaries in the Church who, in modified form are following the example of our Divinity School. The school's plan of education is now, at the end of the third year, strengthened and integrated to the point where its influence on the teaching and ministry of the Church is recognized as unquestionably valuable.

The Divinity School, in common with other educational institutions, is facing a serious financial problem. It will be required for some years to come that there shall be collected each year the sum of $40,000, which is needed in addition to an income from endowment and students' fees to meet the budget of the school. There is no prospect of adding to our endowment at this time, and so this fund must be raised year by year by the contributions of interested Church people. The time has come, however, when it is necessary to interest a very much larger number of the communicants of our parishes to join with us in meeting our obligation. With the co-operation of the Joint Boards and the Dean, a new plan has been inaugurated to interest a larger number of members of the Church in the school. I beg for it your hearty co-operation and interest.

Our Diocese is the second largest and strongest in the American Church. To be one of the two leading Dioceses in the American Church demands a clergy equally strong and leading, for a diocese can be no stronger than the rectors and the parishes which constitute it.

Of the 288 clergy in the Diocese, 131 of these are alumni of our school. Among our alumni are the following: The Bishop of the Diocese and nine other living Bishops in the Church; the Archdeacon of the Diocese; the Dean of The Divinity School; four Deans of our Convocations; the General Secretary of the City Mission; the Superintendent of the Seamen's Church Institute; the Head Master of the Church Farm School; three members of the Standing Committee; eleven members of the Examining Chaplains; two Canons of the Cathedral; and twenty-two members of the Executive Council. Many of our parishes and missions in this Diocese are served by the graduates of our school.

The Episcopal Academy

THE Episcopal Academy is unexcelled by any college preparatory school. It is also the largest school of this character in our Church in the United States. As it is now over 156 years old, it is making a great effort to become free from debt. It has large grounds and a beautiful location at Overbrook. It is hoped that not only the alumni but also the Church at large will be generous to this old and valuable school and be liberal in their gifts for its sustaining.

The Cathedral

AT the Cathedral, the Memorial Altar in Bay D, which contains a 26-inch Norman column from the West end of Lincoln Cathedral, England, was consecrated. The Altar in St. Michael's Chapel in Bay E has incorporated in it stones from Jerusalem and will be consecrated on All Saints' Day. A memorial window will soon be in place. The Font, which was formerly at the Holy Nativity Mission at Wrightstown, has been presented to the Cathedral by St. Clement's Church. It is greatly desired that the Cathedral Associates should be largely increased in number. The Bishop has fixed Saturday, June 22, as "Cathedral Day" and it is hoped that that the large attendance of last year will be repeated. Deaconess Nutter, who occupies the Stiles House on the grounds, is doing wonderful work among the children of the neighborhood.

At the Pro-Cathedral, both an Armenian and an Italian congregation are worshipping as our guests, so our services every Sunday are said in three languages, and a mission was held there for one week, in charge of the Rev. Dr. Shryock, the Chairman of the Diocesan Committee on Evangelism.

The House of Rest for the Aged

A GIFT of $12,000 had been made for an infirmary in connection with this home. This is a much needed addition. We earnestly wish that an annual offering were made in all churches in the Diocese and liberal individual gifts were made for its support and enlargement. We have as many or more on the waiting list as we have in the home. And being on the waiting list incurs great privation to these aged people. They need our help and protection now.

The Woman's Auxiliary, 1929-1939

AS Auxiliary to the National Council in all its departments, the aim of the Woman's Auxiliary is to enlist the women of the various parishes in the mission of the Church, through worship, study, service and gifts. Ten years ago there were 173 branches, today, 202, including 12 evening and 28 Junior branches. During the past ten years two new departments have been added—the Field Department, which is responsible for strengthening existing branches and developing new ones, and the Christian Social Relations Department, which aims to develop Christian public opinion in such matters as war, social and economic order, race relations, etc.

Four new committees have been added during the past ten years, namely: Devotional, emphasizing the necessity of the things of the spirit; Evening, a missionary meeting for business and professional women and others who can't attend morning meetings; Mothers' Union, with its aim to uphold the sanctity of marriage and Christian training in the home; this committee is making quiet but steady progress, gaining friends and members. There are at the present time about one hundred members belonging to some twelve or more parishes. Elizabeth Price Martin League, with its three units—one at the Philadelphia General Hospital for the benefit of the patients, one at the Episcopal Hospital for the benefit of the hospital, and a Volunteer Bureau for service in the Diocese.

Total gifts to quota and specials amount to nearly one-half million dollars and the United Thank Offering totals $271,141. Nearly three-quarters of a million dollars has been given by the women for work in the Church covering a period of ten years.

Joint Commissions On Evangelism and The Forward Movement

THE Joint Commissions on Evangelism and the Forward Movement, under the able co-chairmanship of the Rev. Stanley V. Wilcox and the Rev. John K. Shryock, Ph.D., have made great progress together. The Forward Movement booklets have been distributed throughout the Diocese; a Quiet Day for the clergy is held each year with a great many clergy attending; and for over thirteen years a Diocesan Preaching Mission has been held Thursday nights in Lent in the Church of the Holy Trinity, at which time many outstanding preachers have been heard. Last year, for the first time, these Commissions inaugurated a mission throughout the Diocese extending over a period of one week. Sixty parishes held these missions and sixteen other parishes co-operated in other ways, such as supplying missioners, etc. Very satisfactory and helpful results were reported from all those parishes that co-operated. The Joint Commissions are planning a Diocesan Children's Mission to be held in as many parishes as possible shortly before Advent. This is a new venture in our Diocese, but one that is sure to bring forth good results. It is also co-operating with the Federation of Churches in the National Christian Mission.

Church Historical Society

OUR Church Historical Society is accomplishing much. Its library is in the Crypt of The Divinity School at 42nd and Spruce Streets. There the society's librarian carries on a considerable work of research and answers many inquries. The Society is constantly securing documents of value, such as histories of the parishes and dioceses, biographies, records of the consecrations of bishops, documents pertaining to bishops, other clergymen and lay people; and also to missions of the Church. It has a complete file of Journals of General Convention, and a large file of Diocesan Journals, some 3000 in number, with constant additions. From its duplicates it has supplied church materials to libraries of universities at strategic points, and conducts a library from which students and others may find source material of value. Visitors are welcome to look over the collection, and students may have access to works to which they desire to refer. A very large collection of valuable manuscripts forms a section by itself, surveyed in the last year by the Federal Historical Survey and pronounced of high value and interest. Pictures form a section; many of them are of early workers of the S. P. G., missionaries, bishops and others, as well as churches. A compilation was made by the society during the past year, showing the first church established in each of the several states, with date of organization and present status. This compilation for printing was requested by the editors of Historical Magazine in the December, 1939, issue.

Diocesan Altar Guild

THE work of the Diocesan Altar Guild has gone forward and taken on new work during the past ten years in 29 Dioceses throughout the country and also in the following foreign fields: Alaska, Brazil, Canal Zone, China, Cuba, Haiti, Hawaii, Japan, Liberia, Philippine Islands, Puerto Rico, Santo Domingo and the Virgin Islands. The Diocesan Altar Guild cares for the altars in the Cathedral, the Bishop's Chapel in Church House, and The Divinity School in Philadelphia. It also grants the requests of the chaplains of the United States Army, supplying them with their needs in administering their work. It has furnished altars, including altar linens, vestments for the clergy and altar furniture. Two thousand five hundred and twenty-nine articles were distributed during the past ten years.

The Endowment of The Episcopate

THE first Bishop of Pennsylvania, being also rector of Christ Church, did not receive any salary from the Diocese. Realizing that such conditions were not likely to continue after the death of Bishop White, a loyal churchman of those days, Andrew Doz, who died in 1809, left a legacy to the Diocese as a nucleus of a fund for the support of a Bishop of Pennsylvania who should have the City of Philadelphia as his residence. About the same time the Diocese arranged for annual offerings to be taken in the parishes for the increase of this fund. Additional legacies and offerings were received from time to time, notably in 1937, when, as part of the celebrations in connection with Bishop Taitt's completion of 50 years as a priest in the Diocese, a "Jubilee Fund" of $6071.88 was raised and added to the Episcopal Fund, at the suggestion of the Bishop. At the present time, through the operation of the Mortgage Redemption Fund inaugurated to liquidate the mortgage debts on mission property, in which insurance is used, nearly $6000 is reported to date as eventually coming to the Endowment for the Maintenance of the Episcopate.

The Episcopal Residence Fund

WHEN the house, 1633 Spruce Street, which had been used as a residence by Bishop Stevens, was sold in 1902 for some $30,000, the Convention directed that the proceeds be kept separately by the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund as a fund to be known as "The Episcopal Residence Fund." When the old Church House was sold and the present one bought and altered, the Convention directed that $25,000 of the balance remaining should be held by the same Trustees as "The Bishop Suffragan Residence Fund," until the Convention should otherwise direct. The Convention of 1939 directed that this fund and the older Episcopal Residence Fund be combined into one fund to be known as "The Episcopal Residences Fund," until the Convention should otherwise direct, the purpose being to provide a fund which would be available for use either as supporting or purchasing a home, or homes, for a future Bishop, or Bishops.

The present amounts in the two funds are as follows, the values being those at which the securities were set up on the books of The Church Foundation at the close of the year: The Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate, $92,670.38; the Episcopal Residences Fund, $45,523.81. There is also a considerable fund which, for many years, has been held by the Advancement Society of Pennsylvania, as trustee under a legacy for the support of the Bishop of Pennsylvania. All funds total about $150,000. This fund should be largely increased in order to make the assessments less on many of our smaller parishes.

The Church Extension Fund

THE Church Extension Fund was started in 1915 to aid in the purchase of sites, assist in the building of missions, churches, rectories, parish houses, etc. The "Calls" are limited to three each year. Pledges come from as far as China. During the past ten years over $83,000 has been received through the Church Extension Fund Calls. During this period many churches, parish houses, chapels and rectories have been built with the assistance of this fund.

The Bishop White Parish Library Association

THE Bishop White Parish Library Association was started in 1838 and has just passed its hundredth anniversary. It is a living memorial to our beloved first Bishop of Pennsylvania and Presiding Bishop of the American Church for fifty years, Bishop William White. Its object is to supply the missionary stations and feeble parishes of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Pennsylvania with the standard theological works of the Church; and to extend its aid, so far as its means will permit, to indigent parishes in other dioceses and to foreign missionary stations, giving the preference always to isolated regions, or wherever the Church may be feeblest. Before 1849 the Bishop White Parish Library Association had sent grants of theological books into Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Tennessee, Florida, Mississippi, Wisconsin, Iowa, Texas and Arkansas, which shows that in Philadelphia there were those who were trying to spread the Church's teaching into the developing West. Since then nearly every State in the Union has received grants, and also many foreign countries.

The Advancement Society

THE Advancement Society in the Diocese of Pennsylvania has just passed its 128th anniversary; the Society which Bishop William White and his distinguished associates started to advance the cause of Christianity in Pennsylvania. A study of the early reports, over a century ago, shows that the Advancement Society was the most important missionary agency in the State. The General and Diocesan Missionary Societies had not been organized, and at one time the Society paid part or all of the stipends for forty missionaries, who ministered to small, scattered congregations. In a partial way, this work is continued by sharing in the stipends for the chaplains at State College and Mont Alto Sanatorium, and the general missionary for the work among the deaf mutes.

When the Advancement Society was started, the Diocese of Pennsylvania was conterminous with the State, and according to its charter all the present dioceses in the State share in the benefits of the fund. The object of the society is to aid churches that are in great need, or are struggling to meet some pressing obligation, such as extraordinary repairs of churches, parish houses or rectories; purchase of property or new sites; payment of mortgages, or to meet an emergency; and also to help start new work, making it possible for the Church to advance in some real and permanent way. Although great care is exercised before a grant is made, yet the gift is always the final payment, thereby making it an obligation that the Church must do its share and be free from debt. Great encouragement has been given to many churches and missions at critical times, often bringing victory out of defeat, and enabling them to go forward with new courage and a larger faith. It is hoped that the endowment fund will be enlarged. The need is very great and the possibilities without limit. We appeal to the generosity of those who would lay strong foundations and build thereon for a real future. Anyone aiding this fund can be assured that the gift will be a sacred trust and administered in the most helpful way. It is strange and unfortunate that a society of such age and usefulness should have received no bequests for many years.

Resumé of the Financial Safeguards

AT the meeting of the Department of Finance, held November 10, 1933, a resolution was adopted for the appointment of a committee to look into financial practices in the various committees, commissions, boards, and departments of the Diocese; in the various institutions and organizations in the Diocese which consider themselves connected with the Episcopal Church, and in the parishes and missions. The committee made a report to the Department of Finance and to the Executive Council which led to the adoption in Diocesan Convention of 1934 of a resolution for the appointment of a special committee to report to the Convention of 1935. The committee reported and the Convention of 1935 continued the committee, which has since maintained its existence as a sub-committee of the Department of Finance. The clergy and most of the laity have co-operated splendidly to bring about desirable improvements. The treasurer's office of the National Council recently made use of the 1938 questionnaire of the Committee in connection with inquiries of its own concerning the financial practices of missionary dioceses.

Foundation The Church THE Church Foundation was chartered in 1926, absorbing the much older corporation, The Trustees of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, which had functioned since 1881, serving as trustee for the purpose of holding properties and funds for the Diocese, for missions and for such parishes and charities as cared to make use of its services. The Church Foundation obtained a somewhat broader charter and was planned to inspire greater confidence by the provision in its by-laws that all securities must always be in the custody of a trust company of substantial capital and surplus. Ten years ago there were 76 trusts and securities, valued at $1,408,499, in the custody of The Church Foundation. Today there are 130 trusts and just a little short of $1,900,000 of securities, the latest and largest addition being the securities formerly handled by the Trustees of the Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate, which were turned over to The Church Foundation by order of the last Convention.

Some years ago the Convention designated The Church Foundation as the official trustee to hold properties and funds in trust for churches and charities in this Diocese. It now holds all the mission properties in trust, and will continue to so hold them even after they become parishes. This will assure that those properties cannot be encumbered or disposed of without the consent of the diocesan authorities. During these years the relations between The Church Foundation and those administering the financial affairs of the Diocese have become increasingly intimate and mutually helpful.

The Duplex Envelopes THE duplex envelopes are intended as distinctly for two separate objects—one side for our parish and all its obligations and the red side for the missionary work of the Church. If each month the amount on the red side of the envelopes was sent direct to missions, it would greatly facilitate the work and save the need of borrowing money to meet obligations. A great number of people in our parishes are not properly informed about missions and the work that is being done throughout the mission field. It is hoped that interest will be stimulated so that this great work of the Church will go forward.

IN the ten years of my Episcopate there have been in the Diocese 32,237 baptisms and 31,947 confirmations. Some people ask, "What becomes of the baptized? Why is there such a discrepancy between baptism and confirmation?" In the Diocese of Pennsylvania more than 97 percent come to confirmation. This is largely due to our large and efficient Sunday Schools.

In those ten years $1,562,142 has been contributed to missions through the National Council and many thousands through special gifts.

In those ten years 95 men have entered the ministry.

I cannot close without expressing my happiness in the great affection that has been shown me. I do not believe that in this whole country, there is another diocese where greater affection for their Bishop exists or greater readiness to assist him in all his undertakings. For these he devoutly thanks God. He assures his people that his love for them is unbounded. His earnest prayer is that God will give us the grace to see and know the great work which He puts it in our power to do; and the consciousness of His manifold gifts. Above all may we pray that He may give us grace to use these gifts, always to His honor and glory.

Lord, in loving contemplation
Fix our hearts and eyes on thee
Till we taste thy full salvation
And thine unveiled glories see.

MEMORIAL NOTICES

Of Bishops of the Church:

ROBERT LEWIS PADDOCK, Retired Bishop of the Missionary District of Eastern Oregon, died on May 17, 1939, at Saint John's Hospital, Brooklyn, New York, from a serious heart condition from which he had suffered for many years. He was born in Brooklyn, New York, on December 24, 1869, receiving his early education at Saint Paul's School, Concord, and at Trinity College, where he graduated in 1894. In 1897 he graduated from Berkeley Divinity School and was made Deacon by Bishop Niles, being ordained to the Priesthood in 1898 by Bishop Leonard. He served as Curate at Saint Paul's Church, Southington, in 1897, and at Saint Paul's Church, Cleveland, acting also as Traveling Secretary for the Church Students Missionary Association. From 1898 to 1901 he was Vicar of the Pro-Cathedral at Stanton and Canon of the Cathedral at New York. In 1902 he accepted a call as Rector of the Church of The Holy Apostles, New York City. where he remained until his Consecration as Missionary Bishop of Eastern Oregon by Bishops Tuttle, Seymour, and Worthington. After a strenuous and very active Episcopate he was forced to resign in 1922 because of a very serious heart condition. Coming from a long line of active Clergy—his father was First Missionary Bishop of Washington, his uncle was Fifth Bishop of Massachusetts, his cousin was Third Bishop of Ohio—filled with missionary enthusiasm, he accomplished a great deal in his District of 75,000 square miles, although his policies did not always meet with willing accord. Very broad and liberal in many of his viewpoints, he refused to accept or to solicit funds from the East and even from the Board of Missions, believing that people should take care of themselves. So, too, he would not build churches where the Denominations were established. He was intensely Anti-Fascist and thoroughly against all war moves.

JAMES WISE, Fourth Bishop of Kansas, died July 8, 1939, after a prolonged illness, in the sixty-third year of his age. He was born at Dundee, Scotland, July 26, 1875, and brought up in the Presbyterian Church. His family came to the United States in 1888, when he obtained a position in railroad work, singing in one of the Church Choirs, which roused his interest in the Church. He graduated from the University of Nebraska in 1895 and from the General Theological Seminary in 1901, when he was made Deacon by Bishop Worthington. He served for one year at Saint Edward's Mission and Saint Clement's Mission in South Omaha and at Holy Cross, Papillion. He was ordained Priest in 1902 by Bishop Williams, becoming Rector of Saint Martin's Church, South Omaha. In 1909 he accepted a call as Rector of Holy Communion Church, St. Louis, Missouri, where he remained for seventeen years, declining an election as Bishop Coadjutor of Texas during his Rectorship. On October 28, 1916, he was consecrated Bishop Coadjutor of Kansas by Bishops Tuttle, Kingsolving, and Rowe. Bishop Millspaugh died four weeks later and he became Bishop of the Diocese. A vigorous Mission Preacher of the old type, much of his time was given to this aspect of his work after the consecration of his Coadjutor in 1937.

PHILIP MERCER RHINELANDER, Retired Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, died early in the morning of September 21, 1939, at his summer home at Eastern Point, Gloucester, Massachusetts, in the seventy-first year of his age. He was born at Newport, Rhode Island, on June 13, 1869, receiving his early education at Saint Paul's School, Concord, New Hampshire, and at Harvard University, where he also studied Law for one year. Deciding to enter the Ministry he went to the General Theological Seminary for one year and to the School of Theology at Oxford, England, for three years. He was made Deacon in 1896 and ordained Priest the year following by Bishop Satterlee of Washington. From 1897 to 1903 he was a member of the Cathedral Staff, serving at Saint Alban's Church, Saint Mark's Church, and the Church of The Good Shepherd in Washington. In 1903 he became Professor of Church History at Berkeley

Divinity School, leaving four years later when he was elected Professor of the History of Religion and Missions at Episcopal Theological School, Cambridge, Massachusetts, a Chair which he had started. At both Seminaries his influence among young men was noteworthy. Declining calls to become Vice-Chancellor of The University of The South and also Vicar of Trinity Chapel, New York City, he was elected Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Pennsylvania at the Annual Convention in 1911, and was consecrated, together with Bishop Garland, at the Church of The Advocate on October 28, 1911, by Bishops Tuttle, Whitehead, and Lawrence. Nineteen days later, on the death of Bishop MacKay-Smith, he became the Seventh Bishop of the Diocese. In 1922 a recurring heart condition compelled a year's leave of absence which, however, proved unavailing and he was forced to resign on May 1, 1923. Removing to Washington he acted as Warden of the College of Preachers, which developed very greatly under his leadership, but in 1937 continued heart-weakness necessitated his relinquishment of all activity and finally resulted in his death. During his Episcopate the Diocese made large strides forward. A Preacher of unusual power and clarity, a careful and outstanding scholar, filled with high vision, endowed with a winsome personality and bold faith, his teaching was at once challenging and effective. Always he stressed the vital importance of the devotional life, in himself, in his Clergy, and through them in his people. Faced with the problems of the World War and its aftermath, as well as the resulting foreign-born influx, he handled them well and wisely. While in more material matters he reorganized the missionary and financial work, started the Executive Council, reawakened the Cathedral idea, found the Church News and moved the Church House to its present location.

JOHN NEWTON MCCORMICK, Retired Bishop of Western Michigan, died in New York City on November 26, 1939, from a heart affection in the seventy-seventh year of his age. He was born in Richmond, Virginia, on February 1, 1863, graduating from Randolph-Macon College in 1883 and from Johns Hopkins University in 1888. He served as a Minister in the Methodist Episcopal Church from 1884 to 1891, filling four Pastorates in Baltimore, when he decided to study for Holy Orders, being made Deacon in 1893 and ordained Priest in the year following by Bishop Randolph. From 1893 to 1895 he was Rector of Saint Paul's Church, Suffolk, Virginia; from 1895 to 1898 he was Rector at Saint Luke's Church, Atlanta, Georgia; from 1898 to 1906 he was Rector at Saint Mark's Church, Grand Rapids. Michigan. On February 14, 1906, he was consecrated Bishop Coadjutor of Western Michigan by Bishops Tuttle, Gillespie, and C. K. Nelson, becoming Bishop of the Diocese at the death of Bishop Gillespie in 1909. From 1917 to 1919 he served at the Front as Chaplain, A.E.F., and of the Red Cross, and was in charge of the European Churches from 1923 to 1926. In 1937 his health gave out and he was compelled to resign on November 1. A wise executive and a preacher of unusual ability, he was much loved in his Diocese and throughout the Church.

CHARLES EDWARD WOODCOCK, Retired Bishop of the Diocese of Kentucky, died at his home in Fort Myers, Florida, on March 12, 1940, from a heart attack, in the eighty-sixth year of his age. He was born at New Britain, Connecticut, on June 12, 1854. receiving his early education at the Waterbury School and under private tutors. He graduated from Hobart College and the Berkeley Divinity School in 1882, when he was made Deacon by Bishop Williams and ordained Priest the year following. Always interested in the Ministry, he was a Student Preacher at Portland, Connecticut, in 1880 and Curate at Grace Church, Baltimore, Maryland, from 1882 to 1884, when he accepted a Call as Rector at Ascension Church, New Haven. From 1888 to 1900 he was Rector of Christ Church, Ansonia. For the next five years he was Rector at Saint John's Church, Detroit, Michigan. He served as Deputy to the General Convention in 1895, 1898, and 1904. On January 25, 1905, he was consecrated Bishop of Kentucky by Bishops Tuttle, Seymour, and Worthington, continuing active until 1935, when failing health compelled his resignation. It has been well said that his life was replete with usefulness and influence among people of divers culture and divergent traditions. A preacher of outstanding ability and power, he was listened to at all times and in various localities with intense interest. At the Lenten Noon-Day Services in Philadelphia and elsewhere he always attracted the largest crowds. While his distinctly Diocesan work was marked with the same success.

GEORGE CRAIG STEWART, Fifth Bishop of Chicago, collapsed on his way to a Confirmation Service on May 2, 1940, in the sixty-first year of his age and did not recover consciousness. He was born at Saginaw, Michigan, on August 8, 1879, being brought up as a Scotch Presbyterian. Graduating from Evanston Academy and Northwestern University in Chicago and Garrett Bible Institute, he served as a Minister in the Methodist Church for five years. Deciding to study for Holy Orders, he was made a Deacon and ordained Priest by Bishop Anderson in 1903. For one year he served as Priest in Charge at Saint Elizabeth's Church, Glencoe, when he accepted a Call to Saint Luke's Church, Evanston. Here he remained until his election as Bishop Coadjutor of Chicago, building a magnificent Church structure and bringing that Parish to a high state of efficiency. He was a Deputy to General Convention from 1910 to 1928, excepting 1913, and active in many Diocesan as well as National offices. On June 18, 1930, he was consecrated Bishop Coadjutor of Chicago, becoming Diocesan on January 30, 1930, at Bishop Anderson's death. During the World War he was Chaplain of Hospital No. 6 in France. He was a member of the National Council from 1923, of the Commission on Faith and Order, a Delegate to the Lausanne Conference in 1927, to the Edinburgh Conference in 1937 and to the Utrecht Conference in 1938. In 1939 he suffered a very severe nervous breakdown while preaching at a Mission in Canada, which ultimately resulted in his death, although he recovered sufficiently to resume much of his Episcopal duty. A strong preacher, an active and efficient leader, well known throughout the Church, his Ministry will be greatly missed.

Of Priests of This Diocese:

WOOD STEWART, a Retired Priest of this Diocese, died at New Brooklyn, Maine, on July 4, 1939, aged sixty years. He was born in Rose Hill, Alabama, September 13, 1878, graduating from Rollins College, Florida, in 1902, and from the General Theological Seminary in 1904, doing work also at Cambridge Seminary and at Columbia University. He was made Deacon in 1905 and ordained to the Priesthood a year later. In 1905 he was Curate at the Church of The Holy Communion, New York City, and in 1906 at Saint Thomas Church, Brooklyn. In 1907 he became Rector of Trinity Church, New Dorp, New York City, accepting a call as Rector of Epiphany Church, Seattle, Washington, in 1909. He served as Deputy to the General Convention in 1916 and as Chaplain in the Washington Coast Corps at Fort Warden and of the 63rd Artillery. In 1919 he came to this Diocese as Rector of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields, being a Member of the Executive Council from 1920 to 1929 and Chairman of the Department of Social Service from 1924 to 1926. In 1932 he was forced to resign through ill health, since which time he was unable to do any active work. The Interment was at the Church of The Good Shepherd, Parkersburg, West Virginia, on July 7.

JAMES ODGERS MCILHENNY, a retired Priest of the Diocese, died at The Episcopal Hospital on July 29, 1939, aged sixty-nine years. He was born in Philadelphia July 3, 1870, graduating from Saint Stephen's College in 1893 and from the Divinity School in Philadelphia in 1896. He was made Deacon in 1896 and ordained to the Priesthood in 1897 by Bishop Whitaker. From July 1, 1896, to April 3, 1899, he was Assistant Minister at Calvary Church, Germantown, when he accepted appointment as Priest in Charge at Saint Bartholomew's Mission on Lehigh Avenue. On September 1, 1906, he accepted a call as Rector of Christ Church, Woodbury, New Jersey, where he remained until November 1, 1908, when he began his thirty years' Rectorship at the Church of The Resurrection, Philadelphia, retiring in January, 1938, because of ill health. He was a Member of the Commission on Work among the Deaf since 1913, serving as Secretary and Chairman since 1923; of The Executive Council in 1925 and 1926, and of the Standing Committee from 1926 to 1939.

GEORGE WARRINGTON LAMB, Rector of the Church of The Covenant, Philadelphia, died at The Episcopal Hospital on October 30, 1939, in the sixty-fifth year of his age after a year's illness. He was born at Clarksboro, New Jersey, on June 4, 1875, graduating from the University of Pennsylvania in 1893, and later taking the Degree of Doctor of Medicine at the University of The South. He never practiced as a physician, however, but decided to study for Holy Orders, being made Deacon in 1901, and ordained to the Priesthood a year later by Bishop Nicholson, after private preparation. In 1901 he was Assistant Minister at the House of Prayer, Branchtown, for a short time, when he accepted a call as Rector at Trinity Church, Buckingham. From 1904 to 1920 he was Rector at Saint Martin's Church, Radnor, leaving in 1921 to become Priest in Charge at Trinity Church, Vineland, New Jersey. Two years later he went to Saint John's Church, Huntingdon, as Rector, returning to this Diocese in 1924 as Rector of the Church of The Covenant.

THEOPHILUS DANIEL MALAN, Rector Emeritus of the Church of Saint Sauveur, Philadelphia, died at Ocean City, New Jersey, on December 21, 1939, in the eighty-third year of his age. He was born in La Tour, Pelice, Italy, on March 11, 1857, of Huguenot parentage, receiving his early education in Geneva, Switzerland, both in High School and Theological Seminary, and in the University of Paris, France, with degrees also from Edinburgh, Scotland, and from the University of Pennsylvania. He served in the Ministry of the Methodist Church for some years and was ordered Deacon in 1914 in this Diocese, being ordained the year following, when he accepted a Call to the French Church. In 1925 he was compelled to retire on account of ill health, when he returned to Torre Pelice, Italy, where he served such people in the neighborhood as he was able to reach. In September, 1939, he returned to this country. Of genial and kindly temperament, he was very active during the World War in establishing Classes for the French soldiers and nurses who were established here.

CHARLES HENRY ARNDT, Rector Emeritus of Christ Church and Saint Michael, Germantown, died on January 18, 1940, at the Hahnemann Hospital from a heart condition, in the seventy-sixth year of his age. He was born at Adrian, Ohio, on July 8, 1864, graduating from Kenyon College in 1889 and from the Divinity School in Philadelphia in 1892. He was made Deacon that same year and ordained to the Priesthood the year following. From 1892 to 1894 he was Assistant Minister at Christ Church, Germantown, and Associate Rector from 1894 to 1896. In 1897 he was granted leave of absence, serving at the Church of The Holy Spirit, Nice, France. He returned to Christ Church in 1897, when he was elected Rector, becoming Rector Emeritus in 1933, when the Church was combined with Saint Michael's Church, Germantown. In 1934 he was in charge of Saint Paul's Church, Rome, Italy, retiring from active work in 1936.

ERNEST ALBERT RICH, a Retired Priest of the Diocese, died on February 12, 1940, in the sixty-fifth year of his age from a heart attack. He was born in Reisterstown, Maryland, on January 26, 1876, graduating from Trinity College in 1899 and from the Episcopal Theological School at Cambridge, Massachusetts, in 1905. For several years he was Chaplain at Saint James' Mission, Maryland, and on the Faculty of the School there, afterwards becoming Curate at Transfiguration and Calvary Missions, Blue Ridge Summit, Pennsylvania, and later

Missionary at Tazewell Parish, Graham, Virginia. He came to this Diocese in 1931 as Chaplain of The City Mission with special duty at Holmesburg County Prison, but was compelled to retire in October, 1936, when he suffered a complete breakdown.

The Rev. George Ethelbert Condit
The Rev. Samuel Newman Baxter, Jr.

The Rev. Joseph LeVander Wright
The Rev. John Robert Diehl
The Rev. Paul Curry Armstrong
The Rev. William Hamilton Jefferys, Jr.

The Standing Committee gave its consent to the placing of a mortgage in the sum of $5,000 upon the Parish House (it being unconsecrated) of the Church of the Incarnation, subject to the acceptance by the Vestry of the Church of the Incarnation of the following conditions:

(a) That the mortgage contain a provision for an amortization by installments within a reasonable stated period.

(b) That the parish supply to the Department of Finance of the Diocese on request from time to time full information as to the finances of the parish.

(c) That if in the judgment of the Department of Finance, approved by the Executive Council on review of the said finances, the parish has no reasonable prospect of bringing the income and expenditures into balance, arrangements shall be made for the sale of the property of the parish at the first favorable opportunity at a reasonable price to be agreed upon between the vestry and the Department of Finance.

These stipulations were recommended to the Executive Council and other authorities of the Diocese to be generally applied in like instances. At the suggestion of the Department of Finance, in regard to parish mortgages, the Standing Committee also agreed that an examination of the finances of the parish by the Department of Finance and a favorable conclusion by the Department upon the ability of the parish to make income and expenditures meet should precede consent to the mortgage, and that where the conclusion of the Department is unfavorable, the Standing Committee might well withhold consent to the execution of the mortgage.

The Standing Committee approved the alienation by sale of the property 2412 North 12th Street, which had been devised to the Parish of St. Barnabas, Kensington, without restriction, for $1,700.

The Standing Committee approved the release to Mr. George F. Tyler of any or all interest of the Diocese in certain property in Wrightstown, Bucks County, formerly used in connection with the Country Centre Mission.

The Standing Committee approved for presentation to the Convention the recommendations of the Special Committee to Consider the Desirability of Amending the Canons of the Diocese to Provide Greater Protection to the Diocese in the Matter of Parochial Property.

The Standing Committee received a report that the Memorial Church of Saint Paul, 15th and Porter Streets, had stated that their Charter had never been approved as required by law; that the Church had appeared in Court and had their Charter approved, but had neglected to have it approved by the Convention; a difference was noted between the Charter approved by the Court and the Model Charter as approved by the Convention. The Standing Committee has agreed with the Charter Committee and the Parish to give formal approval to the Charter when properly amended.

The Standing Committee is studying the form and type of physical and mental examination given to Candidates for the Ministry, with the intention of recommending to the General Convention certain changes.

MATERIAL FOR THE REPORT TO THE CONVENTION, BY THE STANDING COMMITTEE, ON THE TRANSFER OF CERTAIN FUNDS FROM THE TRUSTEES OF THE FUND FOR THE ENDOWMENT OF THE EPISCOPATE TO THE CHURCH FOUNDATION

The Convention of 1939, having been presented with the resignations of the Trustees of the Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate, together with their request that their duties and responsibilities be provided for in some other way, took action, under the Canon, by appointing The Church Foundation Trustee in their places, and by directing the Standing Committee to enter into an agreement with The Church Foundation, covering its powers and duties in the above trust (Jnl. 1939, pp. 49, 50, 384); and, having been informed by The Church Foundation that it had received from the said Trustees all the securities and cash belonging to the several funds in their care, to accept, on behalf of the Convention, the resignations of said Trustees.

The Standing Committee would report that, in accordance with the action of the Convention, it executed such an agreement with The Church Foundation as of June 1, 1939, and that it collaborated with the officers of The Church Foundation in auditing, so far as the same was practicable, and so far as the Chancellor and the Counsel for the Trustees considered necessary, the Account Stated of the Pennsylvania Company, Attorney-in-fact for the said Trustees, of all principal transactions during the past thirty-six years. It was found by the Standing Committee that during that period, up to 1921, the accounts of the Trustees had been annually audited by committees appointed by the Standing Committee, as directed by the Convention, and that their reports were printed in the Convention JOURNAL each year. In 1921 the Executive Office of the Diocese began to function, and after that the auditing of the Trustees' Accounts was done by the Auditors appointed by the Executive Council to audit the Executive Office accounts.

The Account Stated was found to be in balance, and the securities and cash which the Trustees proposed to turn over were found to be such as the Account called for. Two things, however, called for action.

It was found that, by inadvertence on both sides, some ten years ago the Executive Council paid back to the Trustees $1,000 too much in the repayment of a loan of $10,000 made by the Trustees, under authority of the Convention, to enable the Council to make necessary repairs to the Bishop Mackay-Smith Memorial House. At the suggestion of the Standing Committee the Council requested the Trustees to return to them the above $1,000, which was done before the Trustees turned over their securities and cash.

The Convention of 1891 authorized the sale of the house formerly occupied by Bishop Stevens, and directed that if it was sold the proceeds should be delivered to the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, as it was then called, to be by them kept as a separate fund to be known as "The Episcopal Residence Fund." (See Jnl., 1939, pp. 259–263.) The Convention of 1939 directed that when The Church Foundation should have received from the Trustees of the Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate the securities and cash of the Episcopal Residence Fund and of the Bishop Suffragan Residence Fund, both also in the custody of the said Trustees, The Church Foundation should combine the two residence funds into one fund to be known as "The Episcopal Residences Fund." But it developed that, while the Trustees from 1902, when they received the proceeds of the sale of the Bishop Stevens House, had always in their remittances of income to the Treasurer of the Diocese, indicated how much should be considered as income from the Episcopal Residence Fund, they had not, from the first, segregated the securities belonging to the Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate. In order therefore, that The Church Foundation might be in position to obey the mandate of the Convention to combine the two residence funds it was necessary for the Trustees to divide the securities and cash in the Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate equitably between that Fund and the Episcopal Residence Fund with which it had become merged. From a study of the Diocesan JOURNALS for thirty years back and of the Account of the Attorney-in-fact for the Trustees, the Rev. Francis C. Hartshorne, the Executive Vice-President of The Church Foundation, who had been asked by the Trustees and the Standing Committee to inquire into the facts, was able to suggest a plan which received the approval of the Chancellor, for the Foundation and the Standing Committee, and of the Counsel for the Trustees, W. W. Montgomery, Jr., Esquire, and was accepted by all concerned.

The amounts in the several funds which the Trustees turned over to The Church Foundation were, in the Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate $91,665.38; in the Episcopal Residence Fund, $25,260.21; in the Bishop Suffragan Residence Fund, $20,287.28; values being market or appraised values at the time of turning over, as agreed upon between the Standing Committee and The Church Foundation. In accordance with the directions of the Convention of 1939, The Church Foundation combined the last two, and set up on its books one fund, The Episcopal Residences Fund, of $45,547.49. The Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate has since been increased to $92,665.38 because the Standing Committee, at the request of the Executive Council, has added thereto the $1,000 paid back to it by the Trustees as above explained.

The charge of the Pennsylvania Company for stating the account, $200, and cost of the audit and appraisal by The Church Foundation, $425, were deducted proportionately from the two funds, leaving in the Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate, $92,247.75, and in the Episcopal Residences Fund, $45,340.12.

Counsel for the Trustees advised them that, in addition to receiving a full receipt for all cash and securities turned over by them to The Church Foundation, they should also receive from a proper source a full discharge from all duties and responsibilities and a release protecting themselves, and their estates from any claims arising out of their trusteeships. It was also his opinion that only the Convention could give an adequate release. It was therefore agreed that the Standing Committee, in reporting the matter to the Convention, should recommend to the latter the passage of such a resolution as would, in the opinion of said Counsel, serve as a sufficient release for the Trustees. Such a resolution is appended to this report and its adoption recommended.

1. RESOLVED, That the Diocese of Pennsylvania hereby accepts as sufficient and complete in respect of income as well as of principal the accounting rendered as of December 29, 1939, by Charlton Yarnall, Thomas Newhall, J. Andrews Harris, Jr., and Parker S. Williams, as Trustees of the Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate, the Episcopal Residence Fund and the Bishop Suffragan Residence Fund, respectively:

2. RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Diocese of Pennsylvania hereby recognizes and ratifies the payment and delivery to Provident Trust Company of Philadelphia, Fiscal Agent for The Church Foundation, of moneys and assets in pursuance of such accounting as the equivalent in all respects of payment and delivery to the Diocese;

3. RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Diocese of Pennsylvania does hereby fully release, discharge and acquit the said Charlton Yarnall, Thomas Newhall, Parker S. Williams and the heirs, executors and administrators of the said J. Andrews Harris, Jr., now deceased, of and from any and all obligations and liabilities past and future, incident to the management of said trusts;

4. RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Bishop and the Secretary of the Convention are hereby authorized and empowered to execute and deliver on behalf of the Diocese and as its act such instrument or instruments as may be appropriate to evidence and to give full effect to the action taken by the Diocese expressed in the foregoing resolutions.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That the Diocese of Pennsylvania, in pursuance of resolutions adopted at the annual Convention on May 7, 1940, does hereby

(1) Accept as sufficient and complete in respect of income as well as of principal the accounting rendered as of December 29, 1939, by Charlton Yarnall, Thomas Newhall, J. Andrews Harris, Jr., and Parker S. Williams, as Trustees of the Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate, the Episcopal Residence Fund and the Bishop Suffragan Residence Fund, respectively;

(2) Recognize and ratify the payment and delivery to Provident Trust Company of Philadelphia, Fiscal Agent for The Church Foundation, of moneys and assets in pursuance of such accounting as the equivalent in all respects of payment and delivery to the Diocese;

(3) Fully release, discharge and acquit the said Charlton Yarnall, Thomas Newhall, Parker S. Williams and the heirs, executors and administrators of the said J. Andrews Harris, Jr., now deceased, of and from any and all obligations and liabilities, past and future, incident to the management of said trusts.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, The Bishop and the Secretary of the Diocese have respectively hereunto set their hands and seals this day of , 1940.

APPENDIX E

Report of the Treasurer of the Diocese of Pennsylvania 1939

The report of the Treasurer of the Diocese of Pennsylvania for the year 1939, audited by Charles S. Rockey and Company, certified public accountants, is submitted herewith.

The Diocese paid its Expectation of $117,451.95 to the National Council, and in addition paid the $7,336.39 due on our China Pledge, and paid our 1938 Expectation Deficit of $22,216.12, and contributed $2,504.08 in Specials, or a grand total of $149,508.54. This accomplishment was made possible because of the co-operation of the parishes and missions, as well as the response made to the special appeals of the Presiding Bishop of our Church, and the moneys sent either through the office of the Diocesan Treasurer or direct to the National Council. It was also made possible because of the work done by the Diocesan Field Department, under the leadership of Mr. Thomas S. Gates.

Only 18 parishes and missions failed to pay their Expectations in full. Many of the parishes and missions co-operated by sending in one-twelfth of their missionary Expectation each month. We are glad to note this increased co-operation.

The books of the Treasurer show a cash balance of $6,614.74 in the Missionary Fund for the year 1939. This is the first time in many years that we have been able to show such a balance, and it will be wise for the Diocese to segregate this cash balance from any 1940 appropriation, and use it to protect our credit. For many years the Diocese has been obliged to operate through overdrafts. This is not a wise banking practice.

The Diocese desires to express its grateful appreciation to Messrs. Drexel and Company for the continuation of their courteous arrangements whereby a credit to a limited amount has been extended, to the parishes and missions and the Woman's Auxiliary, as well as other organizations of the Diocese, for their co-operation, and to the financial staff in the Treasurer's Office for its efficient and faithful service throughout the year.

ARTHUR V. MORTON,
Treasurer.

FREDERICK R. DRAYTON,
Assistant Treasurer.

APPENDIX F

Report of the Executive Council for 1939

The transfer of the Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate, the Episcopal Residence Fund, and the Bishop Suffragan Residence Fund, from the four natural trustees to The Church Foundation (Jnl., 1939, pp. 49–50, 259–263, and 348–386) is under way at this writing (March, 1940) and will probably have been completed before Diocesan Convention of 1940 meets. It is sad to have to record the death of one of the trustees, Mr. J. Andrews Harris, Jr., a loyal churchman, son of the late Reverend John Andrews Harris, rector of St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill, from 1864 to 1914, and rector emeritus until his death in 1922.

The books of the Diocese for the year 1939 closed January 10, 1940. On that date the Diocese had a credit balance, including all its current funds with its bankers of $13,541.37; of which the balance in the Missionary Fund was $6,614.74. By decision of the Bishop and Executive Council this latter sum will be carried as working capital to reduce the amount of the overdrafts which have occurred from time to time each year, and thereby to reduce also interest charges. This happy result was accomplished by hard work in the Treasurer's office under Dr. Houghton and by a splendid spirit of co-operation in the parishes and missions, all but two of which sent in expectations for 1940.

A Mortgage Redemption Fund was established in May, 1939, following its authorization by Convention (Jnl., p. 48). The report upon its results will appear next year.

The Report of the Committee on Financial Safeguards, a sub-committee of the Department of Finance. is submitted separately and need not be summarized here.

Another financial benefit of the year was the sale, for one-half their aggregate par value ($25,000) of all the mortgages still held as investments by the Diocesan Campaign Fund of 1926. This sale was effected through the efforts of Mr. Lardner Howell, the chairman of the Department of Property.

The Diocesan Commission on Music had interesting plans for 1939 which had to be suspended for lack of funds. There can be few things which aid worship more than well-selected music sung by a well-trained choir, volunteer or professional. The Commission on Music can do much for the diocese.

The Department of Religious Education, beside carrying on its usual activities, organized a summer conference held at Ursinus College from June 25 to 30 for communicants of our diocese which had a registration of 129 and a success unusual for a new venture. A Winter Conference followed it, an account of which belongs to 1940. The growth of the Department's "Church School-by-mail" from an enrollment of 40 to 141 in its first year should be mentioned. Surely the importance of these advances cannot be overestimated. For the Church, either in parish or diocese, to neglect the education of its people is a betrayal of trust dreadful in its consequences. Bringing large congregations together to hear sermons on current events or on the latest book which the rector may have read does not supply it. Only competent dogmatic teaching, constantly given, meeting, in the case of adults, the current heresies of the age, will suffice.

The parish of St. Thomas, Whitemarsh, has made a number of gifts and loans to struggling parishes and missions, a fine example of leadership and of generosity. The colored parish of St. Thomas, Philadelphia, moved from Twelfth Street to West Philadelphia, where it occupies the property of the former Mission of the Beloved Disciple.

The Commission on Recruiting for the Ministry is continuing its valuable conferences for young men of high school and college age. That of 1939 held on May 27 at the Episcopal Academy was attended by thirty. The Commission needs more funds. It reports "that the great majority of the men who request assistance from the Commission come from families of very limited financial resources and from parishes or missions that are unable to provide much, if any, monetary help." It might be interesting to ascertain what parishes over the past twenty-five years or so have been furnishing men for the ministry.

It may be of interest to the Diocese to be reminded that our Church Historical Society has its headquarters in our midst and that it is accomplishing much. Its Library is in the crypt of the Divinity School at 42nd and Spruce Streets. There the Society's librarian, the Reverend George Woodward Lamb (who is also the chairman of our diocesan Commission on Parochial History), carries on a considerable work of research and answers many inquiries. The Society is constantly securing documents of value, such as histories of the parishes and dioceses, biographies, records of the Consecrations of Bishops, and documents pertaining to Bishops, other Clergymen and lay people and to Missions of the Church. It has a complete file of Journals of General Convention, and a large file of Diocesan Journals, some 3,000 in number, with constant additions. From its duplicates it has supplied Church materials to libraries of Universities at strategic points. It exchanges much duplicate matter for other material and conducts a Library in which students and others may find source material of value. Visitors are welcome to look over the collection, and students may have access to works they desire to refer to.

A very large collection of valuable manuscripts forms a section by itself, surveyed, in the last year, by the Federal Historical Survey, and pronounced of high value and interest. Pictures form a section; many of them are of early workers of the S. P. G., of Missionaries, Bishops, and others, as well as Churches.

The Librarian is now engaged in preparing an historical and educational exhibit for use at the coming General Convention at Kansas City, which will include interesting data on the Convention which adopted the Prayer Book and on some of the first Bishops, Clergymen, and Churches in the mid-west.

A compilation was made by the Society during the past year, showing the first Church established in each of the several States, with date of organization and present status. This compilation was requested by the editors of the Historical Magazine for printing in the December, 1939, issue.

In the Church News for January, 1940, under the title, "New Homes Promise a New Day," appeared an account of the proposed housing project in the vicinity of Gloria Dei. In addition to the housing project, there is a project for the establishment of the Gloria Dei National Historical Park to preserve for the city of Philadelphia and for the people of the United States the church and appurtenant buildings, and to improve the surrounding grounds. H. R. 8050 of the 76th Congress, 3rd Session, introduced by Mr. Leon Sacks, one of the Congressmen from Philadelphia, is to provide for the establishment of the park. The Preambles of the Bill recite the founding of Gloria Dei in 1677 by the original Finnish and Swedish settlers, and that "Gloria Dei Church is the oldest church building and the home of the oldest religious congregation in Pennsylvania, and is a shrine and object of great historic interest and value because of the many notable historic personages who have attended and worshipped there, and also because its churchyard contains the graves of many of the pioneer Finnish and Swedish settlers in the States of New Jersey, Delaware, and Pennsylvania." The Bill itself authorizes and directs the Secretary of the Treasury to transfer to the Secretary of the Interior "the land, together with the buildings thereon, known as the Tomson tract, containing approximately one and thirty-five one-hundredths acres, located at Delaware Avenue, Washington Avenue, Water, Christian, and Swanson Streets, in the city of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania," and to set apart this tract "together with such other property as may be acquired by the Secretary of the Interior pursuant to this Act," as a national historical park. The Bill further authorizes and directs the Secretary of the Interior to acquire by gift, purchase, or condemnation such adjacent land as he shall deem appropriate for the purposes of the park.

The enactment of this Bill is of great importance to the city and, needless to say, of great interest and importance to the people of our Diocese. They should write to the Chairman of the House Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds, expressing their interest in the Bill and their desire that it be enacted into law.

The reports of the Departments and of the Convocations follow.

Respectfully submitted,

SPENCER ERVIN,
Vice President.

March 1, 1940.

THE DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL SERVICE

Again the Chairman wishes to place on record his appreciation of the faithfulness of the members in their attention to Committee work and attendance at the meetings of the Department. This continuity of interest adds greatly to the value of the discussions and the reports.

To an increasing degree the Department is called upon to advise the Executive Council and other Church agencies on the worthwhileness of proposed or newly established undertakings. In its early days it was called "The Bishop's Eye," and today it might be called "The Bishop's Eyes," for there are so many undertakings requiring attention.

Since our last report penal problems have been given close and continuous study and out of the admirable address of Dr. J. W. Claudy, Superintendent of Rock View, has grown a suggestion that there should be erected at the various penal and reformatory institutions, chapels for the religious services.

These are now held in the auditoriums where all sorts of secular meetings and entertainments are held, and this tends to detract from the spirit of reverence and worship which should characterize them.

Continued attention has been given the question of security for lay employees of the Church. This situation has been complicated by the National Council taking action while a Committee of General Convention is studying the problem. The Council seems to have overlooked the fact that it is an administrative organ and not a policy determining body.

From the minutes of the September meeting the following excerpt will show what has been accomplished in the line of throwing safeguards around marriage:

> "Mr. Stockham reported the marital legislation had passed a second time. The second law, that pertaining to examination before childbirth, is not compulsory; it rests with the pregnant mother. The fact that it is not compulsory is not apparent. He pointed out (as with earlier tubercular legislation) there might be some objections which would work out. This law follows up 1937 legislation. The Federation of Women's Clubs drafted the two bills as vetoed. In final form they went through without substantial objection. He explained the first, or Pre-Marital Bill, is compulsory, and effective as of September 1, 1939. Nineteen states now have this examination. Mr. Stockham concluded by praising the support of the women, without whom these bills would not have been passed. The Chairman commended Mr. Stockham for his support of this important marital legislation."

It will be recalled that the first pre-marital bill was drafted by and introduced at the instance of the Department.

Few Churchmen appreciate what a serious problem is the production and distribution of salacious publications. As a recent writer in The Forum said:

"A torrent of 'smutty magazines' is flowing across the newsstands of the nation. Last month, 8,000,000 people—most of them under 21—bought copies of 150 nationally distributed periodicals reeking with frankly objectionable material; in some localities these magazines constitute from one fourth to one half of all newsstand sales. These are publications that possess no literary or artistic merit; any intelligent adult would instantly recognize them as deliberate commercial exploitations of filth and as patent violations of existing laws against obscenity."

"The filthy magazine is not a chimera of prudish minds. Its menace is real, its influence potently crime-inciting. Law enforcement agencies recognize that the sex criminal is a reader of such literature and that the imaginations of most juvenile delinquents are inflamed by pornographic publications. Lewis E. Lawes, Warden of Sing Sing Prison, declares: 'Salacious magazines are definitely connected with the criminal activity of individuals predisposed toward sex crimes. They have had a definite effect in many cases with which I have come directly in contact.' J. Edgar Hoover testifies: 'The publication and distribution of salacious material is a peculiarly vicious evil; the destruction of moral character caused by it among young people cannot be overestimated. The circulation of periodicals containing such material plays an important part in the development of crime among the youth of our country.'"

This Department has been at work on this problem and through one of its members, the Hon. Thomas B. Stockham, had its bill introduced in the 1939 session of the Legislature. We are still studying the whole subject, especially to determine whether it is a question of punishing violators of existing laws after the violations have occurred or to seek to prevent the publications at the source, by no means an easy task.

Work on St. Christopher's (St. John's Settlement House) has progressed most satisfactorily under the leadership of Dean Stockman. Our relation is one of friendliness and advice. It should be clearly understood that the Department has no direct control over any institution in the Diocese. Its function is to counsel and aid. It serves, however, as a clearing house for ideas and suggestions. Practically every institution is represented in its membership and frequent reports keep the whole group informed of what is being done.

Co-operation may be said to be the keynote of our work. We co-operate with the Bishop and the Church House; with Church institutions; with parishes; with organizations like the Pennsylvania Council of Churches and the Philadelphia Federation of Churches.

CLINTON ROGERS WOODRUFF,
Chairman.

FIELD DEPARTMENT

The Field Department commenced its work in May, by securing from the Clergy in the Diocese, the appointment of Every Member Canvass Chairmen, and Vice-Chairmen. The first meeting of these chairmen was held at Stouffers on June 20th, when they met at dinner with the officers of the Department, and Dr. Lewis B. Franklin, Treasurer of the National Council, and Dr. John W. Wood, Executive Secretary of the Department of Foreign Missions. At this meeting the policy of the Department was outlined, and plans were laid for successful parish canvasses in the fall.

All the chairmen agreed to secure canvassers during the summer months. The Department desires to take advantage of this opportunity to thank them for the splendid co-operation given during the year.

Two mass meetings were held in Holy Trinity Church for canvass chairmen and canvassers. The first was held on the evening of October 16th, at which time, the Reverend John A. Mackay, D.D., President of Princeton Theological Seminary, made an excellent address in which he presented modern philosophical motivations for Christian Missions in Foreign Lands. The second meeting was held on the evening of October 23rd, at which time the Reverend Frederick P. Houghton, D.D., Executive Secretary of the Diocese, presented the work being done in our Church in the Domestic Field. There were about 400 present at each of these meetings.

The Department supplied literature and stickers for the canvass, and notes, with pride, that 206 Expectations for 1940 were received from a 208 active parish and mission list in the Diocese.

The Department also conducted the Speaker's Bureau of the Diocese, and arranged 222 speaking engagements in 96 different parishes, missions, and Woman's Auxiliary meetings, for 47 missionaries, including Bishops, Priests, U.T.O. Workers, Nurses, Teachers, and Doctors that represented 30 different fields, and the Diocese received much inspiration and encouragement from their visits.

In addition to the above activities of the Department, the drive for Diocesan Contributors' subscriptions was carried on, and $30,831.50 was received.

The Department, through its Chairman, desires to take this opportunity of thanking the Clergy of the Diocese for the fine co-operation accorded by them, as well as to all the canvassers and the chairmen and vice-chairmen from the parishes and missions to whose loyal and enthusiastic support such excellent results are due.

THOMAS S. GATES,
Chairman.

March 8, 1940.

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE

The Finance Department met regularly each month (excepting during the summer) during 1939, and gave constant thought and study to the many financial problems confronting the Diocese throughout the year.

The Department of Finance, through the Executive Council, asked the authority of the Diocesan Convention, to enter into a contract with Messrs. Edgar B. Speer and Lawrence Wheeler, whereby the Diocese agreed to pay these two gentlemen a fee of $10,000, and office and campaign expenses not to exceed $2,500, in return for which Messrs. Speer and Wheeler agreed to put on a campaign to raise money for the purpose of reducing mortgages amounting to approximately $125,000 on Mission Properties for which the Bishop and Executive Council of the Diocese were legally responsible, as well as, the interest charges for the same. The Diocesan Convention, having granted the authority to the Finance Department, the agreement was entered into by the Department of Finance and Messrs. Speer and Wheeler in June.

Messrs. Speer and Wheeler have been earnestly at work, and the Department notes that as of December 31, 1939, pledges amounting to approximately $39,458.33, have been secured, and cash amounting to $16,806.33 has been paid in. At the same time reductions in mortgages, amounting to $2,000 have been paid.

The Department notes, with pleasure, that all bills of the Diocese, and its Expectation to the National Church, have been paid in full, and that a balance of $6,614.74 is in the Treasury.

JOSHUA ASH PEARSON,
Chairman.

March 8, 1940.

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

The year has been marked by steady growth among most of our Missions, the details of which will be found in the Deans' reports accompanying this report. Special progress has been made by our Missions to Negroes. Some of them have increased their givings toward their vicars' salaries, while some others are approaching the situation where they will be able to become self-supporting. The congregation at The Advent, Kennett Square, has grown to such an extent, that the enlargement of its building is advisable. The mortgage upon the property of Trinity, Collingdale, has been reduced by $4,800 and upon The Advent, Hatboro, by $2,500. There has been a change in the work among Italians in South Philadelphia in 1940. Rev. T. E. Della Cioppa will no longer be a supply worker at L'Emmanuello; but will be a supply for Italian services at the Pro-Cathedral; while Italian services at L'Emmanuello-St. Elisabeth's will be taken by Rev. W. C. Klein, who has volunteered for that purpose. The Missions among the Polish-speaking people have made steady progress. This is especially true of St. Mary's, Manayunk.

JAMES F. BULLITT,
Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF PROPERTY

The Department has been quite active in its efforts to sell several properties and reduce the mortgages on Mission properties during the year 1939.

During the year the Department as a body inspected some of the properties, and gave a great deal of time towards the sale of Old Holy Comforter, at 48th Street and Haverford Avenue. This sale was effected during the summer months, although a transfer of title will not be completed until the early part of the coming year. The vacant lot at 3334 Woodland Avenue was finally sold for $1,000.

In March the Department recommended the appointment of Edward Wilkins as superintendent of the Church House, and Edward Wilkins, Jr., as his assistant. These arrangements were made by the Bishop and Executive Council.

Minor repairs were made to the Church House during the year.

LARDNER HOWELL,
Chairman.

March 8, 1940.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLICITY

The Department of Publicity, which functioned without interruption throughout the year 1939, has continued its activities on the broader base assigned to it in the previous year with satisfactory results.

An increasing degree of co-operation on the part of the Clergy and the Laity, individually as well as through the departments they represent, has made it possible for the Department to maintain its standard of service at a high level.

The Church News

Under the impetus of an intensive campaign, inaugurated in the Spring and ended in the Fall, The Church News increased its circulation from a little more than 1,100 to nearly 5,500 subscriptions. Beginning with last September a new policy was put into effect, increasing the number of issues per year from eight to ten. The combination of improved appearance and content, increased circulation and number of issues has had a salutary effect on advertising volume, which is growing in steady, healthy fashion under the direction of Mrs. Edyth Bennett Deakyne and her staff of solicitors.

News Service

The Department continues this primary function as efficiently as possible, thanks to the co-operation of the secular and the religious press. Throughout the year, the Department is called upon increasingly by the local press to authenticate, correct, or augment items received by them from outside sources, and to aid in assembling data for other articles initiated by themselves.

Church Extension Call

In 1939 Church Extension Fund Calls were issued in January, April, and October, for the benefit of St. Martin's Church, Marcus Hook; Advent Mission, Hatboro; and Church of the Messiah, Philadelphia, respectively.

Cut Service

The Department has continued to build up its file of cuts which is available to parishes and missions or organizations of the Church.

Use of Church House Rooms

Allocating rooms in Church House for meetings and conferences is another function of the Department of Publicity. In 1939 the total number of such meetings was 535.

Information Bureau

This important phase of the Department's work has continued unabated. If the Department does not always have the information sought, it performs the equally valuable function of guiding its inquirers to other possible sources.

The Department expresses its appreciation to Dr. Houghton and to Mr. William Faust, Director of Publicity, for their help and co-operation.

Chairman.

COMMISSION ON RECRUITING FOR THE MINISTRY

Through the appropriation of $1,500 made to the Commission by the Diocese we gave assistance in 1939 to twelve young men who were students in five of our seminaries. Five grants of $100 each were made to men who completed their seminary courses last June and were ordained; $200 grants each were made to two men who were continuing their studies in the seminary; and $100 was given to each of five new applicants who entered the seminary last autumn.

More students requested assistance in 1939 than for several years past, and at this time applications have been received from two men for whom, as yet, we have not been able to provide any help, as our appropriation has been exhausted. If the Commission is to extend its work it will be necessary for it to have a somewhat increased appropriation for 1940 and certainly a larger one for 1941.

It is rather significant that the great majority of the men who request assistance from the Commission come from families of very limited financial resources and from parishes or missions that are unable to provide much, if any, monetary help. Only four of the twelve men to whom the Commission made grants last year are members of parishes of any degree of wealth. Every man to whom assistance was given actually required such help to meet his expenses at the seminary.

On Saturday, May 27, another Conference on the Ministry was held again at the Episcopal Academy, following a luncheon, at which there were 30 in attendance. To these conferences young men of high school and college age are invited. No high-pressure methods are used to induce any man to choose the Ministry as his vocation. Some aspects of the Ministry are presented by those of experience which will help to acquaint those who attend with the responsibilities as well as the privileges of a Priest. We feel that these conferences are decidedly worth while.

Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Annual Report for 1939

In times of stress there is a renewed interest in things religious. In Religious Education it is most clearly seen in the multitude of communities which last year made provision for the religious nuture of children within the public school. At present there is a committee of the Department working with the Board of Education seeking to integrate courses of religious education in the curriculum of our public schools. Needless to say any success would be a notable achievement.

Conferences, Summer and Winter, were inaugurated this year. Most encouraging was the tremendous enthusiasm with which they were received. Significant was the desire for further education in the ways of the Church which they revealed. It is evident that there is a large opportunity in this field of adult education.

It is always difficult to measure life and growth, but all criteria indicate 1939 as a very healthy one educationally. There were 2,301 visitors to the office recorded during the year, exclusive of those who came for meetings and conferences, which is an increase over the previous year of about 800. The office had working contacts with 154 of the nearly 200 Church Schools in the Diocese. The library continues to be widely used. The Field Secretary and Office Secretary, with volunteer assistants, were kept extraordinarily busy in Room 30, which is open daily for ten months from 9 A. M. to 4.30 P. M. and from 9 to 12 on Saturdays.

The Department met ten times during the year with the Rev. Charles Martin as chairman and the Rev. J. Jarden Guenther as secretary. The chairmen of commissions were:

Adult—Rev. Charles Martin;
Church School—Rev. J. Wesley Twelves;
Student—Rev. Brooke Stabler;

Teacher Training—Miss Gwendolyn Miles, to July; Miss Lily Cheston, October and November; Miss Dorothy Scott, December;
Youth—Rev. Benjamin R. Priest.

The work of the Department can best be recorded under its commissions.

Adult Commission—A Summer Conference under the presidency of the Rev. N. B. Groton was held at Ursinus College from June 25 to 30, for those of our Diocese. There was a registration of 129. A measure of success was achieved unusual for a long-established institution and most extraordinary for a new venture. Such interest and enthusiasm indicate that a Diocesan Summer Conference will be a regular part of the life of the Diocese.

A Winter Conference was held in the Church House and Holy Trinity Parish House, January 16 to February 13. There were 30 courses offered in 5 schools—School of Church Life, School for Youth, School of Education, Graduate School, School of Music, and School for Clergy. 359 persons registered and a degree of enthusiasm and interest obtained which makes it evident that the Winter Conference must be continued.

Through the medium of the library, the Normal School, the new Advanced Conference of the Province and in co-operation with the Woman's Auxiliary further work of adult education has been carried on.

Church School Commission—The presentation of the Lenten Offering was held at one great service in Holy Trinity, at which over 2,000 children and teachers were present. Children's choirs, totaling almost 900, led the procession. The offering was $41,484.66.

The Advent Offering of $1,291.05 was designated for three projects this year; furnishings for St. John's, West Oak Lane; a heater for St. Titus' Mission, Elmwood; and Vacation Church Schools. St. John's received $492.10, St. Titus', $450.85, and Vacation Church Schools, $348.12.

The Church School-by-Mail, which is ending its first year under the supervision of this Department, has had a remarkable growth. Starting the year with less than 40 children the enrolment now totals 141—from Germantown, Norristown, and Chester Convocations. Miss Dorothy Kohl, the secretary of the school, whose salary the Woman's Auxiliary is paying for one year, has done a magnificant work in this field.

Through the Christmas Box Secretary, Miss Charlotte Humphrey, 420 gifts and over $150 in money were sent to Missions in the Domestic and Foreign Field. Missions and institutions in our own Diocese were supplied with gifts at Christmas time, Miss Helen McHenry reporting the distribution of more than 2,000 gifts and $40 for candy.

Teacher Training Commission—The 69th Annual Church School Institute was held October 2nd at the Christian Association with the Rev. William M. Bradner, Canon Precentor of the Washington Cathedral, as the principal speaker. Despite the inclement weather there were 281 registered from 67 parishes.

The Diocesan Normal School held three semesters of five weeks each, with a much larger enrolment than we have had for several years.

Commission on Youth—Work among young people is carried on in the Diocese by the National Youth Organizations, such as Young People's Fellowship and the Girls' Friendly Society. The Department is studying how the Commission may best serve these organizations and also the groups not belonging to these organizations.

Student Commission—In process of reorganization.

Vacation Church Schools—There were 21 Vacation Church Schools in the Diocese last summer. The outstanding work done by the committee was the training of new leaders. There being a very decided dearth of trained leaders for new schools a four-week Institute was sponsored last spring for the training of leaders and there were a number of promising young leaders working in Vacation Church Schools during the summer, under skilled teachers. Mrs. John Loman again supervised the field work.

Co-operating Educational Center—A co-operating educational center is a parish which is given special supervision from diocesan and national departments, in return for which they are asked to co-operate in experimental or laboratory procedures and as centers for observation and practice work. The Church of the Epiphany, Germantown, has been selected as a center in this Diocese. Committees from the national department, our diocesan department, and from the parish have made a very careful study of the parish and its life. As a result an enlarged program of education is being developed.

Miss Frazier has been on leave of absence since the middle of October, because of ill health. In her absence Miss Newman, assisted by Miss Mathers, has very ably carried on the work and made possible much of the foregoing achievements.

CHARLES MARTIN,
Chairman.

CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

The foresight and wise planning of former Deans is becoming more apparent every year in the growth and development of the work in this Convocation.

After several years of little or no building of new residences, the past year shows great activity in this field, especially in some areas where our Missions are located.

To plan for an extension of our work, a very able committee has been appointed and has submitted two preliminary reports.

In addition to the spiritual development and progress of the work under the leadership of our devoted Vicars, much material progress has been made.

At Holy Comforter, Aronimink, a new Kimball Organ has been installed at a cost of $1,600.

On December 10th the Dean dedicated a new organ, choir stalls and pulpit at Advent, Kennett Square. The need at Kennett Square now is for an extension to the nave of the Church.

Many improvements have been made at St. Martin's, Marcus Hook. The old church bell, unused for many years, has been rehung and once again calls the faithful to prayer.

The devoted women of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation have helped greatly by another gift of $2,000, which was given to reduce the principal of the mortgage on Trinity, Collingdale. It is difficult to adequately express our heartfelt appreciation for the devotion and zeal, which is manifested by the Auxiliary, and which is such an inspiration to us all.

We have a committee in the Convocation now to make a study of the opportunities for religious work in the many institutions within our borders. The Rev. Matthew W. Davis is very active in his ministrations to the students at Lincoln, Cheyney, and other colleges and schools.

The Rev. R. Bakewell-Green, for many years the devoted Rector of St. Stephen's, Norwood, retired in June. He was greatly beloved by the clergy and laity of the Convocation, and his wise counsel will be greatly missed.

The Rev. Walter Gale resigned as Priest-in-Charge of St. Martin's, Marcus Hook, on December 15. We are deeply grateful to Mr. Gale for his splendid work at St. Martin's, and the love and affection of his many friends here accompany him as he leaves to take up his new duties in the Diocese of Washington.

For many years Mr. John L. Ackroyd was a devoted layworker in the Mission of St. John, Essington. His death is a great loss indeed. His family have presented to the Mission a Litany Desk and Book and a Lectern Bible as memorials to Mr. Ackroyd and his wife.

STANLEY V. WILCOX,
Dean.

FIFTY-FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT WOMAN'S AUXILIARY TO THE CONVOCATION TO CHESTER

"For our citizenship is in heaven" was the text for the Meditations at the Quiet Day which formally began the women's work in our Diocese last fall—a text well worth our most earnest thought these days when the tragedies of this world tend to be uppermost in our hearts and minds. But let us not forget that our supreme task is to make a Christian world. Wars will continue until Christ's Kingdom of Love is established among men everywhere; so our foremost duty is to rally to the support of our Christian soldiers, our Missionaries. Let us never cease to remember that truly "our citizenship is in heaven."

This year, I want to pay tribute to that "cloud of witnesses" who are fellow-workers with us in our Convocation endeavors. They number eighty-eight! Our Father in Heaven alone knows how very much "these" are helping us spiritually to carry on His work. We do know that their Memorial Fund actually contributes annually $198 towards Diocesan Missions. A complete list of these, our heavenly witnesses, has not appeared since 1931 when, to reduce cost, the Annual Reports were shortened. Please read the names prayerfully—then thank God for the Rev. Jules Prevost who, in 1923, conceived the idea of a Memorial Fund and gave the first gift, in memory of his beloved wife. "Seeing we are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses . . . let us run with patience the race that is set before us" and let us "be not weary in well-doing," especially in regard to increasing our "cloud of witnesses."

I hope that each Parish has already planned a Study-class or Educational Day, on the vital subject chosen for 1939–1940—"Christ and the World Community."

Our money-gift of $2,000 goes this year to the Church of the Holy Sacrament. Episcopal Day, Educational Week for the Blind, is March 4. Please respond as liberally as you always have.

Hoping to see many of you at our Spring Meeting, May 16th, at St. George's Church, South Ardmore.

Faithfully yours,

ANN P. JEFFERYS.

CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

We report continued healthy growth of missionary work in the Convocation of Germantown for the year 1939.

No new field of work was opened, although we have asked the nearby Convocation of Norristown to help us think through the problem of caring for the many people coming into our territory where the Convocations adjoin each other near the Temple Stadium. One Mission was closed during the year after the problem had been considered by the proper authorities; Wrightstown had been moribund for a long time and we finally ended work there. On the other hand, we finally erected a worthy church building at West Oak Lane and while we built with thought for the future, the added congregations already tax the capacity of the building. Fortunately the plans were so drawn by the architect that the seating capacity can be increased without spoiling the design or adding overmuch expense. This is something to plan for in the not too distant future. The Vicar reports that on Easter Day, 1940, actual attendance at the Church School numbered 180 and the number of those who attend worship services is much larger. Such attendance justifies all the work and thought the Diocese put into the project.

We have not yet secured enough money to begin building the new Rectory at St. Gabriel's Church, at Front Street and Roosevelt Boulevard, but we have high hopes of having all in hand soon and getting the Vicar into his new home before another year rolls around. The Church of the Messiah, Oxford Circle, has been given one of the Church Extension Calls and is busy adding to the amount in order to have its own Rectory and relieve the Diocese of an expense of $600 a year which we now have to raise to supply the Rector with a home. St. James, Langhorne, has sold its Parish House which was inadequate for the purpose and at a considerable distance from the church building. A new Parish House adjoining the church is being planned and will soon be built, again thanks to the generosity of the Church Extension Fund and to the willingness of the people of the congregation to work. Christ Church, Eddington, is trying to raise enough money to put a badly needed new roof on its church building and when that is completed the whole plant will be more fireproof.

Excellent attendance is reported at our various Mission stations. We are particularly well pleased at the work being carried on at St. Philip's, New Hope, where a devoted layman gives much time and thought to the needs of the surrounding community. Grace Church, Hulmeville, is also one of our thriving works, the Vicar reaching out beyond his immediate flock to shepherd scattered sheep not so near at hand. This could be said with truth of many of our other enterprises.

Convocation meetings have been inspiring and well attended. Its committees are functioning well. Through the generosity of the Woman's Aid, we have been enabled to reduce the mortgage on Zion Church, Logan, by the sum of $500, and the mortgage on the House of Prayer, Branchtown, by the same amount.

We look for even greater progress during the year 1940.

Faithfully,
CHARLES E. EDER,
Dean.

CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

Only one minor change was made in the Mission Stations during 1939. The use of a Divinity student at Epiphany, Royersford, was discontinued in the fall and a lay-reader from St. Peter's, Phoenixville, assumed charge of the Sunday services. Since the Mission continues under the direct supervision of the Rector of St. Peter's, this new arrangement is keeping him in closer touch than ever with Epiphany.

The Advent, Hatboro, had the happy experience of making a payment of $2,500 on the Parish House mortgage of $9,000. Early in 1939 the Mission determined to raise $500, over and above its regular running expenses, toward the reduction of the mortgage. From the Bishop of the Diocese came a promise that, if the Mission was successful in its venture, the April "Call" of the Church Extension Fund would be contributed; from St. Thomas', Whitemarsh, an additional gift of $250 was promised on condition that the Mission reached its $500 goal.

Just at Christmas time, the Vicar of the Advent reported that his people had already passed the goal, and wished to claim the $1,600 of the April "Call" and the gift from St. Thomas'. During the last days of the year, the treasurer of the Mission made payment of $2,500, and the congregation were ready to go into the new year much cheered by all that had happened.

At St. Anne's, Willow Grove, the last penny of the $450 floating indebtedness disappeared. The people of this forward looking Mission are now beginning to think and talk about a "Rectory" for their Vicar!

The Missions at Lansdale, Quakertown, and Gulph Mills—like the other three—have been making steady progress under their Vicars.

CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA

The past year has been one of quietly maintaining the work of the Missions of the Diocese in the Convocation of North Philadelphia, with evidences of definite progress in a few of them. It is my earnest hope that within the next year both St. Augustine's and St. Bartholomew's may become self-supporting and admitted to the Parishes of the Diocese. In both Missions much progress has been made this year, under new leadership, to that end.

Unemployment conditions in the community have held back some of the Missions in the Kensington and Northeast sections particularly. Incidentally, we would call attention to the earnest and significant efforts put forth by the Rector of St. Luke's, Kensington, and of St. Paul's, Aramingo, to establish co-operatives for the benefit of some of their own people and others in the community who were unemployed.

Lay assistance has been remarkably successful both at St. George's, Venango, and St. Paul's, North Penn; but the time is fast approaching when the services of a part-time clergyman should be made available to both of these Missions with a view to more Priestly ministrations, especially to the sick and in providing more fully the offices of the Church.

A ground-breaking ceremony for St. Christopher's Hall at the rear of St. John's Settlement House, 1332 North 12th Street, is reported and depicted in The Church News, and is symbolic of confidence in the future of a renewed St. Christopher's with the Lay Reader who has been a faithful assistant throughout the years and a nucleus of the old membership to carry on the new program, which awaits the leadership of a clergyman for its full realization.

The reports of the other Missions submitted to the Annual Meeting will speak for themselves. Full credit must be given the Vicars in charge for their faithful and successful efforts in maintaining the work of their several Missions in the face of great pressure and discouragement.

Too much cannot be said of the work of the volunteer auditors who have conscientiously and thoroughly examined the accounts of the several Missions and have given much time and thought to their work.

The Woman's Aid has indeed been a generous and considerate friend to all the Missions and a most responsive support to the Dean. Mrs. T. Leslie Gossling, as Chairman, has rendered a service which all are glad to recognize with very genuine appreciation, for her leadership has been both stimulating and constructively effective.

Appreciation is due all who have helped forward our work and have given their utmost to the service of the Church and in the name and for the Glory of our Lord and Master, Jesus Christ.

PERCY R. STOCKMAN,
Dean.

CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

The Missionary work in the Convocation of South Philadelphia has been satisfactory for the year 1939. With the two Federal Housing operations allocated to this section of the city some additional missionary work may be in the making.

The Rev. Mr. Meckling reports a good year at the Mission of the Transfiguration. A branch of the Women's Auxiliary has been organized and is doing good work.

The work at the Chapel of the Hard of Hearing now located in the Parish House of the Church of Holy Trinity is moving steadily forward. The first class for Confirmation is being instructed and will soon be ready for the Bishop's Visitation.

The Mission of the Holy Spirit (Rev. John H. Logan, Jr., in charge) is doing a fine piece of work. An early celebration of Holy Communion is held once a month. A class (the first in several years) is being instructed for Confirmation.

A decided change has been made in the work of the Church at 16th and Mifflin Streets. The Rev. Thomas Della Cioppa, who has been working for many years at the Italian Mission of the L'Emmanuello, has been removed to St. Mary's (Pro-Cathedral), Broad and South Streets, and is under the supervision of the Rev. William Emhardt. May this change result in good for the work and the men concerned.

I want to thank the Women's Aid under the able leadership of Mrs. Frank Bonynge, as president, for all its help and encouragement of the past year.

JOHN EDWIN HILL,
Dean.

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S AID TO THE CONVCCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

Our Missionary interest for this year centered around St. Elisabeth's Church. To enable this Church tide over a crucial point in its history, the proceeds of a Garden Party, held at Gloria Dei, through the kindness of the Rector, the Rev. John Craig Roak, was handed over to the Rev. Frank Roseboro. The net sum of $400 was raised by remarkable co-operation of the Delegates from ALL the Churches of the Convocation, aided by many friends, who gave gifts of money and also came to the Fete and enjoyed themselves in the beautiful surroundings.

The Missionary work of the whole Church, specifically India, was discussed by the Delegates under the leadership of Mrs. Frank Bonynge.

The social work of the Diocese was helped by packages, layettes, and money, at Christmas, to the Elizabeth Price Martin League, checks to the Episcopal Hospital and the House of Rest, Germantown. The Delegates visited St. Martha's House in order to see at first hand the work that is being carried on there.

Other additional interests included the Daily Vacation Bible School of the Diocese, the Cathedral of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, and the Needlework Guild. Many of our Delegates gave practical assistance on the day set apart as Episcopal Day for the Blind; a Chairman and a Hostess was also provided by the Delegates.

I wish to thank the Delegates for excellent co-operation and enthusiasm given in all our undertakings during the year, 1939.

ANNABEL BONYNGE,
President.

CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

Again we are rejoicing in the fact that the Convocation as a whole exceeded by several thousand dollars its expectations for the year 1939. While we are yet considerably below the mathematical quota, progress is being made each year toward it. The expectations for 1940 were slightly increased over those of 1939.

The work among the several Parishes and Missions is continuing in a hopeful way and the Clergy are meeting their many problems with courage and real consecration. The Convocation meetings during the year were well attended and a high degree of interest and enthusiasm manifested.

The work at St. Titus' Mission, the Rev. M. Mills Garcia, Vicar, is showing further signs of progress. The Woman's Aid to the Convocation has very generously supplied funds to have the roof of the property put in a first-class condition and to have the whole building repainted. It is indeed a great improvement. The people of the Mission, especially the Men's Club, are making plans to install a new heating plant. The Clergy of the Convocation and the Woman's Aid are co-operating. It is expected that this work will be done early in 1940. The Mission met its expectation and is taking a larger proportion of the Vicar's salary for 1940.

The work at St. Cyprian's, the Rev. Arthur C. Moore, Vicar, is more than justifying our confidence in constructing the new chapel. Considerable interest has been aroused not only among the people of St. Cyprian's, but in the community itself. We look forward to a continued growth and development in this Mission.

The attention of the Convocation must next be centered on St. Monica's, the Rev. Arthur C. Moore, Vicar. There is considerable interest being manifested by the people and the question of the future development of that work must shortly be faced by the Convocation and a long-term plan developed for it. It is a question largely of the advisability of spending any great sum of money on the buildings as they are now located, or the possibility of finding a new and more favorable location for the work. The people of the Mission are anxious to go forward and this matter must be settled if we are not to chill their ardor and enthusiasm.

Both St. Cyprian's and St. Monica's met their Expectations in full and are taking a larger proportion of their Vicar's salary for 1940.

Under the leadership of Mrs. U. Grant Beath, and her splendid assistants, the Woman's Aid to the Convocation has been most encouraging to the Dean and has generously supported him in every undertaking in the Convocation. A brief glance at their report, sub-joined, indicates the extent of their co-operation. The Dean wishes to express his gratitude to this group.

The Rev. Thomas Logan has been appointed to St. Michael and All Angels' and the work there has the same status it has had in the past. The Bishop has expressed his hope that a satisfactory solution of the relationship of St. Michael's with the Diocese will shortly be forthcoming.

The Rev. F. Allen Parsons has come into the Convocation and is in charge of the Church Home for Children at 58th Street and Baltimore Avenue. The work here is being developed on entirely new lines and under his leadership will no doubt play an important part in its particular sphere of activity.

The Convocation faces the future with confidence and we hope with constantly increasing strength and participation in the work of the Diocese and the National Church.

GRANVILLE TAYLOR,
Dean.

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S AID TO THE CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

The beginning of the year 1939 saw the completion of the work of rebuilding and refurnishing St. Cyprian's Mission and on March 1 that dignified and really beautiful little Mission was consecrated. Meanwhile the people of St. Titus' Mission were patiently waiting and hoping for much needed repairs and renovations to their buildings. To assist in carrying out these plans is now the chief responsibility of the Woman's Aid. During the year we have given $300 to that project and the balance with which we closed the year is designated for that purpose when it is needed. It was our privilege to make also an annual contribution of $25 to the Vacation Church Schools held at our Missions.

The sources of income of the Woman's Aid are: dues paid by delegates, coin cards distributed throughout the Convocation, and various social events which not only add to our Treasury, but also promote a greater friendliness between the Churches and Missions of West Philadelphia. The work of Social Service is financed entirely by the plate offering taken at our three yearly meetings and by such contributions as are made especially for that purpose at Christmas time. Although our funds are conserved strictly for our Missions we are represented by delegates to both branches of the Elizabeth Price Martin League for Service, the League of Intercessors, and the Cathedral League.

This year, as usual, we took an active part in Episcopal Day of the Educational Week for the Blind and in the May Fete at the Episcopal Hospital. A day of singular interest and profit to us all was held at the Church of the Saviour on February 20, the Convocation Educational Day, under the leadership of Mrs. Thomas Harris.

In looking back over this year that is past we realize that its measure of success is due to the wise planning of the chairmen of the various standing committees backed by the wholehearted co-operation of the people of the Convocation. We look forward to 1940 with confidence and faith.

ELIZABETH C. BEATH,
President.

APPENDIX H

Report of the Cathedral Chapter

The past year has witnessed a steady growth in all that pertains to the Cathedral Church of Christ. Not only have the regular Services of the Church been maintained on all Sundays and the greater Holy Days but a satisfactory and helpful activity among the young people of the neighborhood has been carried on by Deaconess Nutter. More people have attended the Holy Communion Services at nine o'clock each Sunday, and a larger number of visitors have been noted at the later Service of Morning Prayer. The Evening Prayer and Sermon each Sunday at 4 P. M. has brought more Parishes into close touch with the Cathedral by the use of this Service as a time of pilgrimage for various churches in the Diocese.

During the past year a memorial Altar in Bay D, which contains a portion of a carved Norman column from the west end of Lincoln Cathedral, England, was consecrated at the All Saints' Day Service. St. Michael's Chapel, containing an Altar which has incorproated in its ornamentation stones from Jerusalem, Bethlehem and other places in the Holy Land, has been completed, except for the window which is now under construction. Consecration of the Chapel and Altar will take place on All Saints' Day of this year. The bodies of Bishop Garland and Mrs. Garlans were translated to the Cathedral Crypt and a Memorial Tablet to Bishop Garland erected on the north wall of the Chapel of St. Mary was dedicated last June on Diocesan Day. At the present time plans have been drawn for a similar Memorial Tablet to be dedicated on Saturday, June 22, in memory of the Rt. Rev. Philip M. Rhinelander, Seventh Bishop of Pennsylvania. The Font, from the Holy Nativity Mission at Wrightstown, has been presented and placed in the Cathedral by St. Clement's Church.

There are now two days in the calendar of events at the Cathedral that are Diocesan in scope, the Saturday nearest to the Nativity of St. John the Baptist Day in June and All Saints' Day. A number of Sundays, at the afternoon Service, have been taken by the Churches in the Diocese, when the clergy, choirs, and people come on a pilgrimage and also conduct Evening Prayer. The Cathedral League is composed of individuals who desire to aid in the carrying on of the Cathedral activities and make a yearly offering towards this object. More and more the Cathedral is being thought of in its rightful place as the Diocesan Church, to which all Clergy and People of the Diocese may come and have part in worship and spiritual exercises where our Father in God, the Bishop of this Diocese, has his rightful seat.

JAMES M. NIBLO,
Secretary.

APPENDIX J

Report of the Registrar, 1940

The canonical duties of the Registrar have been performed regularly through the year, and the statistical records of the Diocese, viz.: Episcopal Acts within the Diocese, list of Clergymen canonically resident, and of all Churches, Chapels, or Mission stations of the Diocese, with a description of their location and property, appear in their proper places in the JOURNAL.

During the year a number of requests for the records of Baptisms, Burials, and Marriages of Parishes that are now non-existent have been complied with, and the official sets of JOURNALS of our Diocesan Convention have been deposited in the Church House vault.

H. W. GERNAND
Registrar.

APPENDIX K

Report of the Church Foundation

At the Annual Meeting of the Members held May 10, 1939, the following named gentlemen were elected to serve as Directors for the term expiring in 1942:

Rev. J. M. Collins
Rev. D. W. Gateson
Mr. R. S. Morris
Mr. F. H. Moss
Mr. P. S. Williams

At the Annual Meeting of the Board, the Board accepted the three Trusts as follows:

Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate
Episcopate Residence Fund
Bishop Suffragan Residence Fund

the recent Convention of the Diocese having elected The Church Foundation under the Canon as Trustee of these funds.

When the securities and cash in the Episcopal Residence Fund and in the Bishop Suffragan Residence Fund were received by The Church Foundation they were combined and set up on its books under the name of "The Episcopal Residences Fund," in accordance with the directions of the Annual Convention of 1939. The cash and some of the securities in the above funds were received by The Church Foundation late in December, 1939, and the balance during the first months of 1940, and were set up on the books of The Church Foundation in the following amounts, in the Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate, a total of $91,565.38, and in the Episcopal Residences Fund a total of $45,647.50, the values of such securities as had market values being those of December 29, 1939, and the values of the mortgages and real estate interests being based on appraisals of the real estate satisfactory to the former Trustees, the Standing Committee, and The Church Foundation.

At this same meeting the Foundation accepted the Trust of $9,000 under the Decree of Court for Grace Protestant Episcopal Church of Hulmeville, Pa., under the terms of the Will, in the Estate of Russel L. Vandergrift, deceased.

At the meeting held October 11, 1939, the Committee on Trusts was authorized to accept a Trust for the benefit of St. John's, Concord, under the will of Julia P. Hughes Barr, deceased, as Substituted Trustee in the place of a defaulted Trust Company

At a meeting held January 10, 1940, the following Trusts were accepted:

Under the Will of Evalina Dupont, deceased, to be held as "The Sophie Madelaine and Theophilus P. Chandler Trust for the Church of St. Martin's, Radnor, Pa."

Also, The Anne M. Sharpless Fund for St. John's, Concord, income to be used for support of Services of St. John's, Concord.

Also, Burial Lot Fund for St. John's, Concord.

At a meeting held April 10, 1940, it was resolved that the Trust for the property 2249 W. Cumberland Street be accepted for the use of the Diocese in its missionary work, the understanding being that the property would be for the use of St. Paul's, North Penn.

At this same meeting, a Trust for St. Faith's Mission, Brookline, which had been accepted some months ago, was discussed and it was thought that we should have a formal authorization to join in the standard form of Deed of Trust. This was, therefore, done, for the use of the Diocese in its missionary work in the property known as the "Rectory of St. Faith's Mission Brookline, Penna.

At the close of 1939, The Church Foundation had on its books securities and properties held in trust to the amount of $1,865,681.21 in book values, including $347,239.87 of real estate, of real estate held for the Diocese or churches therein, from which no revenue is received by The Church Foundation. Included in this item are 121 properties, mostly those used by the Missions, put on the books at $1.00 each, but worth in the aggregate several hundred thousand dollars. $818,830.17 of the total was in bonds, of which $301,374.57 were "Railroads," with $32,193.49, or 10.6% thereof in total or partial default; $267,807.29 "Utilities" with $11,813.66, or 4.4% were in default; $45,313.90 in "Industrials," with $2,885.75, or 6% in default; $83,857.92 in Governments and $29,035.25 in Participating Real Estate bonds, most of which were received by The Church Foundation, and of which $12,996.25, or 4.4% were in total or partial default, making a total of $59,888.85, of defaults, or 7.8% of all bonds held.

Preferred stocks held were $32,860.11; Common Stocks, none of which were bought by The Foundation, $20,405.49. Mortgages held at the present time were $271,308.70 of which four, of a book value of $12,010, or 4.4% were in default and being foreclosed. Real estate acquired through foreclosure totals 64 properties, all rented, of a book value of $292,238.99, and yielding, with proper reserves for repairs and depreciation, over 3% on book values. Miscellaneous items, almost all investments in Perpetual Fire Insurance policies on Church properties held in trust, total $18,472.79. During 1939 The Church Foundation distributed to its beneficiaries $52,608.23 net, being 3.7% on the book value of all invested funds held during all of 1939.

A detailed list of all securities held in the several funds as of the close of 1939 is on file in the Executive Office in The Church House and may be seen by anyone interested. Separate lists of the securities in the funds held for them are also sent once a year to the beneficiaries, and photostats of all ledger entries are sent to them each quarter if distribution is made as frequently as that. Further information may be obtained from the Vice-President, the Rev. F. C. Hartshorne, 600 Provident Trust Co. Building, 17th and Chestnut Streets.

Respectfully submitted,

EDMUND B. MCCARTHY,
Secretary.

APPENDIX L

Sub-Committee on Financial Safeguards of the Department of Finance

Introductory

The Sub-Committee on Financial Safeguards submits the following report for the year since the compilation in April, 1939, of its Report to Convention of May, 1939, which will be found on pages 324 to 359 of the Journal of 1939.

Activities of the Sub-Committee Since May, 1939

Under date of January 11, 1940, the Sub-Committee mailed to the 140 parishes of the diocese copies of the questionnaire which is printed at the end of this report. The preceding questionnaire had gone out under date of June 15, 1938. But the Committee thought it worthwhile to send out the next one in January, 1940, instead of June, 1939, on the theory that in January and February wardens are preparing the Parochial Report to Diocesan Convention which is required by Canon 50 of General Convention, and would find it easier to answer the questions on safeguards then than at any other time of the year. Although a reminder was sent out under date of March 16, only 83 replies had been received up to April 16, the date of compiling this report. This number is not sufficient in relation to the total number of 140 to make possible a detailed listing such as was submitted to Diocesan Convention of 1939. All that is possible is to state the results in terms of the 83 replies received. Whether these represent a fair sampling of the diocese or whether the parishes which failed to reply would show a better or a poorer record on the average cannot be known.

Report on the Organizations and Parishes

In February, 1940, the Sub-Committee wrote all the organizations listed in its Report of 1939 (Journal, pp. 14 to 26) except those whose previous replies indicated the continuing non-existence of funds, securities or the presence of other circumstances making further supervision or inquiry unnecessary (Nos. 2, 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 10, 13, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 21 of Group 1: "Committees, Commissions, Boards, Funds, Trusts, etc., established pursuant to a Canon, or otherwise dependent upon Convention").

Those agencies found satisfactory in 1939 continued so in 1940. Some others took action which is here noted as follows for information and record:

An audit of the accounts of the Church Farm School for the year ending December 31, 1939, was completed and a typewritten report submitted to the trustees by the auditors under date of March 4, 1940. This is the first audit the School has had. The accounts for 1938 will be audited this coming June.

The Trustees of the Home for the Homeless, Mr. George L. Morris, Treasurer, asked to be excused from answering the Committee's inquiry of 1940. The deficiency noted by the Committee in 1939 was the lack of an independent audit.

The Episcopal Tract Society, which in 1939 was in process of reorganization, has now been reorganized. Preparations are being made for an audit of the accounts. The treasurer of the Society is bonded. Securities are kept in a safe deposit box in the Tradesmen's National Bank, and the vice-president and treasurer have access jointly.

St. John's Settlement House was noted in 1939 as being again in operation, but nothing was said as to its safeguards. These are satisfactory.

The Morrisville Community House finances are now in temporary charge of the Honorable Thomas B. Stockham, who has given information indicating that all needed safeguards are in effect except that the audit should be made by an independent accountant rather than by a committee of the Board. However, the total income involved is only $850.

The questionnaire of January, 1940, went to parishes only, and not to parishes and missions as in June, 1938. The Deans were reminded that the responsibility for financial safeguards in the missions rests upon them and not upon the Sub-Committee. The questionnaire of 1940 concerned itself with four old and two new topics. The old ones were auditing, bonding, safe custody of securities and supervision of investments.

Under auditing, the 83 replies may be tabulated as follows:

(a) Parishes with receipts of $3,000 or more:
Audit by a C. P. A.—48.
Audit by an accountant, not a C. P. A.—9.
Audit by a committee of the vestry—10.
No audit at all—2.

(b) Receipts of less than $3,000:
Audit by a competent accountant or by a C. P. A. (although a C. P. A. audit is not requisite where receipts are less than $3,000)—8.
Audit by others—2.
Replies lacking or inconclusive—4.

In other words, out of 83 parishes reporting, 56 were complying with the Canon on Auditing, 23 were not, and the status of 4 was unknown.

In the Report for 1939, the parish of St. Alban, Olney, is listed as deficient for lack of a C. P. A. audit (JOURNAL, p. 30). The Rector of the parish writes:

> "Although technically not conforming to an audit as recommended, we feel that we have fulfilled the intention of your Committee for safeguarding the parochial funds. For the audit we deem that of a State Bank Examiner, through whose hands no monies have passed, to be the equivalent of a Certified Accountant."

The requirement of a C. P. A. where income amounts to $3,000 or more is imposed by Canons of General Convention and of the diocese, and the Committee cannot say that the services of a State Bank Examiner are always equivalent to those of a C. P. A. However, it is glad to publish any exception to its action grounded on unfairness.

Bonding.

Drawing officer bonded in an amount equal to or greater than maximum of all deposit accounts combined—50.
Drawing officer bonded in an amount equal to or greater than average of all deposit accounts combined—5.
Drawing officer bonded for less than average of all deposit accounts combined—8.
Accounts too small to warrant bond—8.
Bond requisite but lacking—7.
Answers lacking or inconclusive—5.

Safe Custody.

44 parishes reported no securities apart from securities held in trust by an outside trustee.
8 parishes had only savings accounts.
The tabulation of the remaining parishes shows:
Securities in the custody of a bank under an agency agreement—12.
Securities in a safe deposit box to be opened by not fewer than two persons jointly—14.
Securities in a safe deposit box to be opened by one person—2.
Replies lacking or inconclusive—3.

Supervision.

The replies here show:
No investments—49.
Investments supervised by bank under agency agreement—11.
Investments supervised by investment bankers or other qualified persons—5.
Investment supervised by vestry—15.
Information lacking or inconclusive—3.

It often happens, of course, that a vestry includes a number of men eminently qualified to pass on investments. However, this may not universally be true.

The comment of your Sub-Committee on the foregoing showing is that the matters of bonding and safe custody are being well attended to, but that there is still something to be done in the matter of auditing, and perhaps also in the supervision of investments.

At this point, before proceeding to the new matters taken up in the 1940 questionnaire, it is desirable to give what information is available on the extent to which parishes listed as uncertain or deficient in the report of our Sub-Committee to Convention of 1939 may have brought themselves up to standard. (Reference is made to the lists in the JOURNAL of 1939, on pages 351 to 354, inclusive):

"(b) Believed satisfactory on the basis of information furnished prior to June, 1938."

Of the 14 parishes listed under the above heading in 1939, the replies to the questionnaire of 1940 show a deficiency in the case of 4, satisfactory conditions in the case of 3; there was no reply in 7 cases.

"(c) Action promised or in progress to remedy deficiencies. These parishes and missions may for practical purposes be rated satisfactory."

Of the 15 parishes listed under the above heading in 1939 the replies to the questionnaire of 1940 show deficiencies still persisting in 3 cases, satisfactory conditions in 17; there was no reply in 5 cases.

"(d) Deficient."

Of the 55 parishes listed under this head in 1939, the replies to the questionnaire of 1940 show that 15 parishes are still deficient, 13 are now satisfactory; there was no reply in 26; 1 reply was ambiguous.

There has thus been some little improvement over 1939, but too large a number of parishes still fail to comply with the Canons of the Diocese and of General Convention governing financial safeguards. A considerable number of parishes, although the requirements of the Canon have been placed before them year after year, and although Diocesan Convention of 1939 again expressed in no uncertain terms its approval of these requirements (JOURNAL, p. 51) persists in ignoring or refusing to comply with them.

We may now take up the new matters dealt with in the 1940 questionnaire. These are publication of accounts to congregations and trust funds.

Publication of Accounts.

Congregations and contributors stand to vestries in the relation of stockholders to the Board of Directors of a business corporation. They are entitled to a full accounting both for their own information and for the protection of funds in which they are interested. Many vestries give their parishioners no information on parish finance, unless sporadically when spurred to do so by the need of obtaining more income. In every parish there should be mailed or posted once a year a printed or mimeographed report showing not only income and expenditure in satisfactory detail, but also the condition in at least brief form of any permanent funds.

Trust Funds.

The parish should have a record of the terms of every trust which it enjoys, and should receive periodical statements of account from the trustee. The annual report of the accounting warden or treasurer to a congregation should include trust funds. Such a statement should give the name of the donor and of the trustee, the object of the fund briefly, the book value, and in the case of securities as distinguished from mortgages, or real estate, the market value obtained by a reasonably recent appraisal; all this in addition to the amount of income received, which is too frequently all that is reported.

Recommendation.

The Sub-Committee recommends that Diocesan Convention authorize the Department of Finance to include in the envelope containing the blanks for the Parochial Report sent out by the Secretary of Convention a form or a sticker bearing such questions in relation to safeguards as it may wish to put before the parishes. This would save some expense and would probably be a convenience to the parishes.

In support of its recommendation the Sub-Committee submits the following Resolution for approval by the Department and submission to Convention.

RESOLVED, That Diocesan Convention hereby grants authority to the Executive Council to include each year with the blank forms of the Parochial Report such questions as the Department of Finance, through its Sub-Committee on Financial Safeguards, may decide to submit to the parishes.

And the Sub-Committee also submits the following Resolution for adoption by the Department itself:

RESOLVED, That the foregoing Report be approved, and its submission to Diocesan Convention authorized with the explanation that because of considerations of time, it has not been submitted to, or approved or disapproved by, the Executive Council.

APPENDIX M

Report of the Commission on Church Unity

Your Commission met for organization on May 31, 1939, and it has held nine meetings since that time. Your Commission planned and carried through a meeting of clergy and laity held in Holy Trinity Parish House on the evening of October 4th. The Rev. George Fiske Dudley, D.D., Rector of St. George's-by-the-River, Rumson, New Jersey, gave briefly the high-lights of the history of the movement for Unity. The Rev. William H. Dunphy, Ph.D., of the Philadelphia Divinity School, outlined the view of those opposed to the Concordat, and the Rev. Cyril C. Richardson, Ph.D., of the Union Theological Seminary, New York, gave the point of view of those who are in favor of the Concordat.

It is evident to your Commission, as indeed to everyone, that there would be great differences of opinion regarding any plan for Church Unity. Despite these differences, your Commission is deeply sensible that upon all Christians there rests the responsibility and indeed the duty to show forth the spirit which will make that unity which is the will of God for His children possible. We must always keep in mind that Jesus prayed that they "all may be one." Men have a right to expect from the fellowship of the Church a spirit of love towards God and towards their fellowmen.

In seeking to further approaches looking towards the eventual unity of all Christendom, we do not have in mind one group absorbing another. There are values to be found in all Christian communions. Those values must be conserved. Our approach to Church Unity is one in which we seek the enrichment of all. We seek a basis for working together in full recognition of our common brotherhood through Christ Jesus.

It is important to note that the Proposed Concordat with the Presbyterians sets forth in its preamble those things which we believe in common and the things we can do in common. Attention on what we believe in common and what we can do in common will help us to deal sympathetically and in love with those things wherein we differ. There is always in life a give-and-take relation. In our approach to the subject of union with the Presbyterians we seek the mutual benefit of both them and ourselves to the greater glory of God.

Since within your Commission itself grave differences of opinion have been found to exist with regard to the Proposed Concordat, it is indeed likely that in this we reflect what is true of the Church as a whole. Despite this, your Commission urges the continuance by General Convention of the Commission on Approaches to Unity, and recommends further study of the problem and opportunities guided by careful adherence to the fundamental principles of Faith and Order to which we ourselves are pledged and by which, as members of the Episcopal Church, we might hope to make our contribution to the cause of Christian Unity in accordance with the will of Our Blessed Lord.

RESOLVED, That the work of your Commission be continued and that copies of this report be sent to the Secretary of both Houses of the General Convention.

Report of the Commission on Evangelism

Throughout the year the Commission has operated with the Commission on the Forward Movement as a Joint Commission, whose activities are reported in detail by the Commission on the Forward Movement.

A series of Lenten Diocesan Services were held at the Church of the Holy Trinity on Thursday evenings. The Commission is grateful to the Rector, the Vestry, and the Staff of the Church of the Holy Trinity, and to all others who contributed to the success of these services. The services were sponsored, each by one of the following diocesan organizations: the Woman's Auxiliary, the Girl's Friendly, the Church Club, the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, the Young People's Fellowship, and the Department of Religious Education. The Commission wishes to thank these organizations for their co-operation.

The Commission has co-operated with the Philadelphia Federation of Churches in various activities.

J. K. SHRYOCK,
Chairman.

APPENDIX O

Report for the Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions to the Convention of 1940

The Convention of 1939, authorized the Commission of Rectors' Salaries and Pensions to assess the sum of $16,000 for its work in 1940, upon the assurance of the Commission that less than that would be assessed if the whole amount were not deemed necessary. If the fall of 1939, upon viewing the situation and because of there being a prospect of a larger balance being carried over to 1940, due to several Aided Parishes being temporarily vacant, the Commission decided to ask the Parishes for only $15,000. It appears now that that amount will be sufficient for this year, but it will probably mean a smaller balance to be carried over to 1941. Therefore, in order to be on the safe side, the Commission is asking for authority to assess not more than $16,000 for 1941, with the assurance that a lesser sum will actually be asked of the Parishes if, next fall, that appears to be possible.

Owing to several Aided Parishes being vacant the Commission hopes that, with the approval of the Bishop, it may be possible to use the authority given it several years ago to notify some of them not to elect Rectors but to agree to the Bishop appointing Vicars until such time as it may be clear that they are able to come sufficiently near to self support—that is, to pay all but $500 of the Rector's salary, to justify keeping them on the list of Aided Parishes rather than be administered as Missions.

Last year, for the first time, it was not necessary to use any of the funds to pay Church Pension Assessments for any Parishes because of their not having paid for at least six months of the year themselves. All but about 3 cents of every dollar contributed went directly to Rectors receiving less than the minimum salary, or in helping pay the pension assessments thereon. A comparatively small number of Parishes have had no part in this good work, not paying their assessments for the Rectors' Salaries and Pension Fund, but in most such cases the salaries paid their Rectors have probably been little more than the minimum, and some of them probably might have asked aid. In two cases, however, Parishes report their Rector's salary of a considerable amount above the minimum, yet contribute nothing to help bring other Clergy up to the minimum.

It is to be hoped that both Vestries and Rectors will realize the obligation of aiding the Diocese to provide a living minimum salary to all of our Clergy and that the year 1941 will find complete response to this simple Christian duty.

JAMES M. NIBLO,
Chairman.

APPENDIX P

Report of the Committee on Canons to the Convention of 1940

In order to save time at the Convention, and for the purpose of enabling the Deputies to understand the appropriateness of the proposed additions to the existing Canons, the Committee on Canons thinks it may be helpful to give the historical perspective.

The Church to which we belong had its beginning in this country when Clergymen of the Church of England who came over with the colonists, or subsequently, gathered congregations and formed them into Parishes of that Church. In this State, in order that they might own the lands and buildings which they used, it was necessary for them to be chartered as corporations. As long as the Colonies were parts of the mother country these Parishes were parts of the mother Church. But when the Colonies became independent of England the Parishes, owing partly to their each having an independent legal existence as corporations, were also independent religious organizations, and were not accountable to anyone. However, they soon combined, as Parishes, to form Dioceses, but, in this region, only on condition that in the Convention of the Diocese they should each have an equal vote no matter how great the disparity in their several sizes. Then the Dioceses combined to form the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America. In becoming parts of this whole the Parishes agreed to subject themselves, so far as the conduct of their spiritual affairs was concerned, to the Doctrine, Discipline, Worship, and Canons of the General Convention and of the Convention of the Diocese in which they were. But they did NOT surrender in any degree whatever their rights over the properties which they possessed as chartered corporations. The members individually, and the Parishes as organizations, belonged to the Episcopal Church, but their properties belonged to them, with every right that the laws of the State gave them, and those laws in those days did not give the Church any rights over their properties.

The consequences have not been by any means entirely beneficial to the work of the Church. In the course of years, in Philadelphia, for example, valuable properties have been acquired, imposing structures erected and large endowments accumulated, all almost exclusively due to the benefactions of people dead for several generations. Does this great accumulation of property and wealth held for some Parishes in a part of Philadelphia mean proportionate wealth and strength for the work of the Church in this Diocese? We know that it does not, and for two main reasons. First, due to changes in neighborhoods and populations, the wealth of some Parishes in buildings and funds is in inverse ratio to their present and probably prospective opportunities for doing a commensurate work for the Church. And, second, the wealth does not belong to the Church in the Diocese, nor is it in any degree subject to Diocesan control, but is entirely in the control of the Parish corporations, and that control may (in fact, already has in a number of cases), come to be in the hands of extremely small groups, which, although they have not contributed anything to the values they have inherited, yet may encumber or dispose of the property and, in some cases, may use up the endowment paying current expenses.

And until 1935 the Church was helpless to do anything about it. In that year, however, the Legislature of Pennsylvania passed an Act which declared that property, real or personal, which had been or should hereafter be given in any way to any subordinate part of a larger religious organization, such as to a Parish of the Church in this Diocese, should be held by the authorities of that subordinate part as a trust for the work of the Church as carried on by that subordinate part, and subject to the rules, regulations customs and canons of the larger and controlling body. This statute, as interpreted by the highest Court in the State in a case arising in connection with another religious body, in the opinion of the Chancellor and other lawyers of our communion who have studied the matter, gives our Convention the legal right to compel Parishes and other similar Church organizations proposing to encumber or dispose of any of their properties or funds, to obtain the approval of the Bishop and the Standing Committee. And the Standing Committee and the Executive Council, believing that advantage should be taken of the opportunity which this Statute gives, after conference with the Committee on Canons and the Chancellor, have asked the Convention to adopt the following Amendments to Canon XII, adoption of which is recommended by the Committee on Canons. The first part is the present Canon with some slight changes, but the second part is entirely new.

Repeal Canon XII entirely and substitute the following:

CANON XII

PROHIBITING THE DESECRATION OF CONSECRATED BUILDINGS AND THE ALIENATION OF CHURCH PROPERTIES

SEC. I.—It shall not be lawful for any Church, Parish or Mission in this Diocese to permit to be removed, or to be taken down, or to be used for any "unhallowed, worldly or common use" any consecrated Church or Chapel, without the previous consent of the Bishop, acting with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee.

SEC. II.—It is hereby declared that all real property which has heretofore been or shall hereafter be devised or conveyed to a Bishop, a Dean, or any official of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, or to any Rector therein, or to any incorporated, or unincorporated Parish or Mission in said Diocese, for use for religious worship, or for a Rectory, Parish House or School, shall be taken and held by such devisee or grantee for the work of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, and no sale, conveyance or mortgage thereof, or lease for more than one year, shall be made by any Bishop, Dean or other Diocesan official, or by any Rector or any incorporated or unincorporated Parish without the previous written consent of the Ecclesiastical Authority and a majority of the members of the Standing Committee, or, if there be no Bishop able to act, then by the consent of the Standing Committee only; but these restrictions on sale, mortgaging and leasing shall not apply to real estate used for purposes of sepulture, or held only for investment; and nothing herein shall authorize the diversion of any property from the purposes, uses and trusts to which it may have been heretofore, lawfully dedicated or to which it may hereafter consistently herewith be lawfully dedicated.

It should be noted that there is nothing in this proposed Canon which would enable any Diocesan authorities to take any funds or property away from any Parish or other legal owner or permit them to interfere with its legitimate use for Church purposes. All it proposes is that it shall not be within the power of any Parish to encumber or part with any part of its property which is essential to its work, without the approval and consent of the Bishop and the Standing Committee. The proposed Canon follows closely the wording of the Statute and seeks to establish in our legislation, where it may be taken cognizance of by any Court, the principle that the Legislature has declared, namely, that the properties and funds of religious organizations are not, like the properties and funds of clubs, which can be used by the members just for their own comfort and convenience, but things held in trust for the work of the Church not only at present but in the future.

CERTAIN LEGAL DIFFICULTIES

We are all in the habit of speaking rather loosely of "The Diocese," or, "The Diocese of Pennsylvania," as if there were some sort of organization which may properly be called by that name. There is not. There is the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, that is, that part of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America which is situated in that part of the State of Pennsylvania that embraces the counties of Bucks, Chester, Delaware, Montgomery and Philadelphia. We call this area "The Diocese of Pennsylvania," but we should remember that the word is really a geographical term, formerly used by the Romans to describe a portion of their empire under the supervision of some one official, and borrowed by the Christian Church to describe the region under a Bishop.

Failure to realize that the Diocese of Pennsylvania is not an organization or even an ascertainable group of individuals results in persons who make their wills without competent advice sometimes leaving lands or money to the Diocese, or to some unincorporated organization therein, with resulting legal complications. Within the last year the Diocese has been left, by will, a piece of realty and a sum of money, and there is no one to legally take possession of either, because a geographical term cannot hold lands or money. Upon application to the proper Court such difficulties can usually be overcome, but the Chancellor cannot make application unless he can show that he has been authorized to do so by the Church in this Diocese, that is, according to legal opinion, by the Bishop and the Convention. As such cases will doubtless continue to occur, the Standing Committee and the Council, after conference with the Chancellor and the Committee on Canons, have asked the Convention to adopt a Canonical provision which it is believed will, under the power given by the Act of 1935, enable the Bishop and the Standing Committee to secure possession of such properties or funds by executing the necessary instruments, or by securing the aid of the Court, and thus obviate the necessity of waiting a long time for the Convention to act in each case.

Another set of cases in which the aid of a Court has to be invoked are those in which a corporation holding property or funds has become incapable of corporate action, as where a Parish shrinks to such a point that there is not, and cannot be elected a vestry to act for it. Under such circumstances someone representing the Church in the Diocese has to go into Court and ask that the defunct corporation be dissolved and its property transferred to some other Church use, and the Canon, proposed by the Standing Committee and the Council and approved by the Chancellor, to authorize the Bishop and the Standing Committee to act in such cases, is recommended for adoption by the Committee on Canons.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO CANON IV

Amend Canon IV, Section I, by adding two new paragraphs, 4 and 5.

4. Whenever any property, real or personal, has heretofore been or shall hereafter be bequeathed, devised, conveyed or given to The Diocese of Pennsylvania, or to The Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, or to any Bishop, Dean or other official thereof, or to any unincorporated body thereof, for use in connection with any purpose or work of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese, by and with the approval of the Standing Committee thereof, may grant, convey, transfer and assign such property, real or personal, to The Church Foundation, in trust under such trusts and for such uses and purposes as may have been declared in such bequest, devise, conveyance or deed of trust as aforesaid, or, if there be no such trusts declared, then under such trusts and for such uses and purposes as may be declared by the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese, by and with the approval of the Standing Committee.

5. Whenever any property, real or personal, has heretofore been or shall hereafter be bequeathed, devised or conveyed to, or be in any manner in the lawful possession of any incorporated body, for use in connection with the work of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, and such incorporated body, through loss of membership or otherwise, is, or shall become incapable of corporate action, the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese, by and with the approval of the Standing Committee thereof shall take such steps as may be legally necessary or proper to vest such property, real or personal, in The Church Foundation, under the same trusts under which it had been held by such incorporated body, and if there be no such trusts, or if the same have become impractical of execution, then under such trusts as may be declared by the Ecclesiastical Authority by and with the approval of the Standing Committee.

The Committee on Canons expresses the hope that the members of the Convention will give careful consideration to all these proposals and believe that they are the work of quite a number of men who have no other interest in them than their belief that their adoption will further the work of the Church in this Diocese. And it is suggested that any members who cannot bring themselves to support all the propositions will vote for those they can, as the several proposals can be adopted independently of the fate of the others.

APPENDIX Q

Report of the Committee on the Relation of the Convention to the Diocese

Your Committee, which was appointed under a resolution adopted by the Convention of 1938, reported to the Convention of 1939, generally approving the plan of proportionate representation after investigating the situation in 12 Dioceses, and asked leave of the Convention, which was unanimously granted, to try to get up-to-date data on the systems in force in the other Dioceses of the Church and report this year a proposed amendment to the Constitution. Following that permission, the Chairman wrote during the summer to 61 other Dioceses, from which there were 48 answers. A largely attended meeting of the Committee was held on March 29, 1940, to consider these answers, which showed some system of proportionate representation, based directly on communicants, in 26 Dioceses, or an increase of 5 over those reported to our Convention in 1914 by the Special Committee authorized by the Convention of 1913. Then, 4 Dioceses had a system of proportionate representation based on the number of clergy, the underlying theory being that the clergy are required by the communicant strength of their parishes, which brings a total of Dioceses having proportionate representation up to 30, your Committee assuming, for those who did not answer, that their status as listed in the 1914 report remained unchanged. On the other hand, 36 Dioceses, including many of the most influential ones, have no communicant proportionate representation system, so that the Church is about evenly divided.

The Committee's report of last year recommended no decrease in the present representation from any parish, but only a limited increase for large parishes; and the Committee's continued deliberations unanimously reaffirms that position.

It was suggested to the Committee that a basic representation by "communicants" was open to serious objections, among them the fact that many communicants were minors and that a better basis of representation would be those entitled by their parish charters to vote at annual meetings. It was thought, however, that while communicant minors are not generally allowed to vote for deputies in their parishes, yet the proportion of them to the total number of communicants was approximately the same throughout the Diocese, and that to include them in a numerical basis on which all deputies would be selected involved no great hardship on any parish; especially as no other Diocese anywhere, so far as known, based representation at its Convention on "members entitled to vote at parish meetings," as suggested, and that to alter that basis would require an additional item in parish reports and might involve confusion and misunderstanding, especially among some older parishes which have never changed their charter provisions for those entitled to vote at their annual meetings or for annual elections of Vestrymen.

It is very hard to classify all the diverse Diocesan provisions, but some general groupings, where based upon communicant members, might be as follows:

One deputy for each parish, with one additional for each 100 communicants and no upward limit as to number. This is the system in the Dioceses of Bethlehem, Duluth, Erie, and Minnesota, and no limit would seem necessary because the congregation are generally not large. Oklahoma has a minimum of 2, with a limit of 7.

Then we have a provision for a single additional deputy if there be more than 100 communicants. This is the plan of Connecticut and Southern Virginia, while Kansas provides for an additional deputy if there be over 200 communicants. Two small Dioceses provide for additional deputies; New Hampshire basing it on a graduated scale from 20 to more than 100 communicants with a limit of 4 deputies, and Vermont on a meticulous scale providing for one deputy for 5 communicants, and running up to 6 for 150 or more.

Some Dioceses provide for one delegate for every 50 communicants, with a total limit of 7 deputies in Fond du Lac, of 5 in Missouri and Springfield, and of 6 in West Texas.

Then we have certain Dioceses with a minimum number and a carefully graduated scale above it; thus Colorado has 3 for less than 200, one additional for the next 100, and an additional deputy for each 200 over 300, the total limit being 8. Harrisburg has a minimum of one, and one additional for each 100 communicants up to 500, and one additional for each 200 communicants over that. Indianapolis has a minimum of one, and one additional for the first 100 over 50, then one additional for each successive 150 up to 600, and one for each additional 200 over that. Iowa has a minimum of one, with one more for successive additions of 50 up to 200, then one more for the next 75, one more for the next 100, one more for the next 125, and one more for each successive 200. Pittsburgh has a system perhaps more complicated than that of Iowa, starting with a minimum of one deputy and ranging up to 15 in successive gradations, each additional deputy representing 20 more communicants than his immediate predecessor. Rhode Island has a minimum of 3, with one additional for over 100 and 5 deputies for over 300, and West Virginia has a minimum of one, with one additional for over 100 and a second additional for over 250.

The Committee has made a recommendation for a charter amendment, which makes no changes whatever in the present setup, but merely clears the way for a future proportionate representation, if, as and when a future Convention adopts a canon; and if and when such canon is adopted the basis upon which any increased representation should be apportioned can be then finally determined. By placing the basis of increased future representation in the canon rather than in the Constitution, it can be changed from time to time without the cumbersome task of Constitutional amendments, and the rights of all parties are safeguarded by a provision that any canon making a change shall not take effect until after the adjournment of the Convention session at which it is adopted. The present provisions regarding vote by orders, which put all parishes and missions on an absolute equality, remain unchanged.

Your Committee, accordingly, recommends the following amendment to the Constitution:

> Amend Art. IV, Paragraph 2, of the Constitution by repealing the words beginning, "Each regularly established," and ending with the word "congregation," and substituting therefor the following:
> "Each regularly established parish of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese, now a member, or which shall hereafter be admitted a member of the Convention, may send to the Convention a Lay Deputy or Deputies, Communicants of this Church elected by the Vestry of said Parish from their own number, or from the congregation, or from their Chapel congregations, not exceeding three except as hereinafter provided. The Convention may, from time to time, provide by canon for additional deputies, not exceeding two in number from any parish, in such proportion to communicants as the Convention may determine. But any canon fixing or changing the proportion shall not take effect until after the adjournment of the session at which it is adopted."

Respectfully submitted.

APPENDIX Q2

Report of the Committee on Canons on the Amendment to the Constitution Proposed by the Special Committee

The Convention of 1938 voted to appoint a Special Committee to consider the whole matter of "the relation of the Diocesan Convention to the people constituting the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese, and particularly the feasibility of the adoption of some distribution of voting power in the Convention between the various congregations which shall have some relation to their respective sizes." The Committee appointed has recommended to this Convention the adoption of an Amendment to the Constitution which would make it possible for some of the larger Parishes to send more than three Deputies, and would also permit Parishes having Chapels to choose one or more Deputies from the Chapel congregations.

This being a recommendation of a special committee appointed to report on the subject it is not for the Committee on Canons to express its opinion of the wisdom or otherwise of the special committee's main proposition, but the Committee on Canons conceives it to be its duty to endeavor to advise the Convention as to what seems to it the best way to express in the Constitutional amendment the purpose the special committee has in mind.

The Amendment, as proposed, would permit the Convention, by Canon, to provide for the election of additional Deputies by the larger Parishes in some proportion to the number of their communicants, the proportion to be fixed by Canon. The Committee on Canons believes that it is very desirable to avoid putting in the Constitution words of uncertain meanings, especially where such an important matter as representation in the Convention is to be based thereon. There are few words in use in Church circles of such indefinite meaning as the word 'communicant,' as used to describe the relation of a person to a particular Parish. It may be construed to include persons from ten years old and upwards. They may be persons who frequently or occasionally receive the Sacrament in some particular Parish, but are not registered there. Or, they may be registered, but seldom receive there. They may be carried on the list of some Parish but have long since removed therefrom, and may have died, and yet continue to be carried for years thereafter. They may have left this Church and joined some Denomination without any notice to the authorities of the Parish where they are registered. Their names may be carried on the lists of more than one Parish. Our Canon XV calls upon the Minister of each Parish and Mission to keep a record of the "total number of communicants," but does not explain who are to be understood by that word, leaving it to the Minister to use his own interpretation of it. For these reasons it is not too much to say that, among the Clergy, if not among the Laity also, there is none too much confidence in the number of communicants reported by the Parishes, especially by the larger ones where the difficulty of keeping accurate lists is greatest. And if representation in the Convention were to be based upon such reported numbers suspicion and animadversions would be the inevitable result. For such purposes 'communicants' should be sharply defined, and if the word is to be used in the Constitution it is in the Constitution that it should be defined, for if it should be left undefined in the Constitution a Canon attempting to limit its broadest meaning might be held invalid for that reason.

In order to bring the matter before the Convention the Committee on Canons has ventured to suggest for consideration as a substitute form of the Amendment the following:

Amend Art. IV, Paragraph 2 of the Constitution, by repealing the words beginning, "Each regularly established," and ending with the word "congregation," and substituting therefor the following:

"Each regularly established Parish of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese, now a member, or which shall hereafter be admitted a member of the Convention, may send to the Convention Lay Deputies, communicants of this Church, elected by the Vestry from their own number, or from the congregation, or from their Chapel congregation or congregations, but not exceeding three in number except as hereinafter provided for. The Convention may, from time to time, provide by Canon for the election in the same way of additional Deputies, not exceeding two in number from any Parish, in such relation and proportion to the size or strength of the Parish, including its Chapel congregations, as said Canon may determine. But any Canon providing for such additional Deputies, or changing such provision shall not take effect until after the adjournment of the session at which it is adopted."

This would leave to a Canon the definition of communicants, or the choice of some other measure of strength or size, such as the number of qualified voters at annual meetings, or of regular contributors, or, as is the method used in some Dioceses, the average number of persons receiving the Sacrament at the last two Easters, as the basis for additional representation in the Convention. As fixed by Canon rather than in the Constitution it would be easier to try experiments and change any method that did not work well in use.

As the adoption of the proposed Amendment finally next year would not of itself accomplish anything unless it be implemented by the adoption of a suitable Canon, the Special Committee should be continued and requested to have ready for presentation to the Convention of 1941 a Canon to carry the Amendment into effect should it be adopted finally by that Convention.

The Committee on Canons would therefore offer the following resolution for adoption in case the proposed Amendment is approved at this session:

RESOLVED, That the Special Committee appointed at the Convention of 1938 on the general subject of voting power in the Convention, and continued by the Convention of 1939, be continued for another year, and requested to continue to study the subject, and to have ready for presentation to the Convention of 1941 any further recommendations thereon, and particularly to prepare a suitable Canon to carry out the provisions of the said Amendment to the Constitution providing for an increase in the Deputies from certain Parishes, should said Amendment be finally enacted at that session.

APPENDIX R

From Provincial Synod

The Secretary has received from the Secretary of the Province of Washington two Committee Reports and a Resolution, with the request that they be brought to the attention of this Convention.

The Resolution calls for a special effort in the Province and in its constituent dioceses to promote the study of the proposals for a concordat with the Presbyterian Church.

The Committee Reports are on Church Debt and on Clergy Placement, and are herewith summarized for the information of Convention. Your Secretary is informed that Convention will be asked to create two special Committees to study these Reports.

Summary of the Report of the Committee on Clergy Placement and of the action of the Provincial Synod upon it:

The Report summarizes the practices of other communions and of other national churches of our communion. It quotes with approval from the Report of the Joint Commission made to General Convention of 1937 (Jnl. pp. 421–422) to the effect that "the Church does not owe a man a living merely because he is ordained," and that the Provinces should "establish files of information concerning the clergymen resident in them," consisting of "a complete record of the clergyman given by himself upon a standard form."

The Provincial Committee recommends the establishment in the Province of Washington of a Clergy Placement Bureau and in the constituent dioceses of Diocesan Placement Bureaus, "the secretary of which shall gather the information blanks of the clergy, retain a copy for his own files and forward one to the proper provincial officer."

The Committee then goes on to recommend the adoption in each of the constituent dioceses of canons providing for a Diocesan Placement Committee, "consisting of the Bishop of the Diocese, together with three Presbyters and three laymen to be elected annually by the Diocesan Convention"; such Placement Committees to be consulted by vestries, or, alternatively to be empowered to nominate clergymen to vestries (whichever any diocese may prefer).

Summary of the Report of the Committee on Church Debt:

The Committee held five meetings, to one or other of which came representatives of every constituent diocese but Erie and Southwestern Virginia.

In view of the facts that some $5,750,000 is owed by the Church in the Third Province; that debt retirement is at the rate of only one per centum per annum; and that interest charges reduce missionary giving and are a danger for the future, the Committee recommends the enactment, in each constituent diocese, of legislation restricting the power of parishes to incur debt.

The restriction recommended is based on provisions in effect for the past three years in the diocese of West Virginia. Parishes are forbidden to create debt without the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee, or of the Bishop and Finance Committee, except within stated limits. Debt to be created for permanent improvements, when added to existing debt, must not exceed 150% of average annual receipts for three years past. Debt to be created for current expenses must not exceed 20% of current receipts for one year past, and in reckoning current receipts, income from endowments is to be excluded, likewise restricted bequests and receipts for extra-parochial purposes. Finally, when consent is given for the creation of debt, it shall be on condition that a stipulated plan of amortization be followed.

APPENDIX S

Re: Jefferies Home

Elizabeth B. Jefferies died on the 29th day of March, 1914, leaving a will and several codicils which contained, among others, the following provisions:

"I give devise and bequeath to my executors hereinafter named the house and lot No. 139 Tulpehocken Street, Germantown, where I now reside and all the rest, residue and remainder of my estate real and personal in trust as follows—they shall permit my niece Mary C. Ihling to use and occupy the said house for and during one year after my decease free of any expense and charge to her—then to use the said house and any addition as and for a home for aged or infirm clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church and their wives, to be maintained and supported by the income of the said residue or of any other fund or contribution given for that purpose. The said trustee shall have power to enlarge the said building out of the principal if they shall deem it necessary. The said home shall be known and styled "The Jefferies Home." If at the time of my death I am not possessed of the said house and lot in fee simple then the said trustees shall use the income for the same purpose in supporting such clergymen, and I authorize them at any time they deem best and expedient to convey the said house and lot and the said monies or investments to any corporation able and willing to assume said trust.

"If my executors or their successors in the trust should at any time deem it expedient to remove the home for aged or infirm clergymen as set forth in the twenty-third item of my will to another locality then I authorize them or their successors in the trust to sell the said house and lot 139 Tulpehocken Street, Germantown, either at public or private sale for such price as they may deem best and to grant and convey the said house and lot to the purchaser or purchasers thereof free and discharged from any liability on the part of said purchaser or purchasers as to the application of the said purchase money. But I expressly declare that the said executors or their successors in the trust shall hold and use the said purchase money for the same purpose and on the same trusts as is set forth in the said twenty-third item of my will.

"I nominate and appoint Thomas H. Shoemaker, Samuel W. Ihling and the Germantown Trust Company to be the executors of and trustees under this my said last will and testament and the codicils thereto, hereby revoking any and all nominations of executors and trustees heretofore made.

"I hereby revoke and annul any and all parts of my will and codicils thereto inconsistent with this codicil to my said will."

The executors thus appointed to administer the estate in accordance with the terms of the will had left a residue of $130,000 and the former residence of the decedent at 139 Tulpehocken Street, Germantown.

The executors continued as trustees to administer this fund, but after careful investigation were of the opinion that it was not large enough to endow a home such as was described in the 23rd paragraph of the will as recited above. They, therefore, kept the fund invested and accumulated the income—as they were permitted to do in the case of charitable trusts—so that the total fund, including the original residue and the accumulated income, now amounts to $256,179 at present market values, as accurately as can be determined.

The income from the fund now amounts to about $7,500 each year, which could be applied to the maintenance of such a home.

At the last Convention Mr. Clinton Rogers Woodruff offered a resolution as follows:

WHEREAS, Mrs. Elizabeth B. Jefferies of Germantown, who died in 1914, planned by her Will and its Codicils for a home in a locality to be selected by her Executors and Trustees (and to be called "The Jefferies Home") for the maintenance and support of aged or infirm clergymen of our Church and their wives:

AND WHEREAS, Since the death of a life tenant in 1922, funds have been accumulating and there are now over One Hundred Thousand Dollars of invested principal and over Two Hundred Thousand Dollars of accumulated invested income in the hands of the corporate Trustee;

1. NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Trustee or Trustees of said fund be requested to take immediate steps toward establishing and operating such a Home, to care for such number of clergymen and their wives as is reasonable and prudent with the income from the principal and from any balance of invested income that may remain in their hands after providing for the building;

2. AND FURTHER BE IT RESOLVED, That, if possible, it is desirable to have the two individual Trustees named in the Will and who are now deceased, replaced by two other individual Trustees to be nominated to the Court by the Bishop of this Diocese or by the Presiding Bishop of the whole Church;

Then in the conclusion of the Resolution the matter of the Jefferies Estate was referred to the Chancellor of the Diocese, with power to act in the premises on behalf of this Convention. It is my actions during the past year under that reference which I now desire to report to the Convention, with certain recommendations for the Convention's consideration.

I first investigated the present condition of the estate, and in that investigation I had the full co-operation of the surviving trustee as both of the individual trustees are now deceased.

The estate consisted of approximately $63,505 worth of good bonds, none in default, a group of stocks worth $13,980, and 15 mortgages on separate properties aggregating $86,622.87; 3 participating mortgages aggregating $33,340, and 8 parcels of real estate representing presumably five closed mortgages and the Tulpehocken Street property which is now vacant and the total present value is $256,178.57.

The total book value of the 8 pieces of real estate is $58,551.70, and at the moment 7 of the properties are rented. The income net is $7,500 per year.

I next investigated the home of the testatrix on Tulpehocken Street. For some years it was rented but for the past several years it has been vacant and is in a deplorable condition. It is an old-fashioned house and the trustees have deemed it unwise to expend the money required to make it a home or a dwelling. If it were used for the Home it would have to be entirely remodelled at a cost of approximately $35,000, and then could provide for 5 couples.

I have been informed that various efforts have been made in the past to consolidate this fund with some existing home, but none of these efforts has succeeded.

I then investigated the possibility of operating a home of the character which the testatrix desired jointly with the existing Keene Home at Bristol. The Keene Home endowment is somewhat smaller than the Jefferies bequest but is more productive than the Jefferies estate, having an income of slightly over $7,000. Even run with amazing economy it is costing slightly over the amount of the income.

Opposite the Keene Home is a property owned by Senator Grundy and his sister—a fine old-fashioned house, but which would require, for the purpose of a Home, considerable alterations. It occurred to me that if we could operate the two homes under one management we might be able to save expense and carry out, for the present, the intentions of the testatrix. Senator Grundy and his sister very generously offered to lease the property as is, for that purpose, for a period of five years, upon our assuming such tax liability as might exist, and nothing else. This would call upon the Jefferies estate to expend a sum of approximately $12,000 to make this property habitable.

It has a large stretch of lovely grounds and overlooks the Delaware River at Bristol. Senator Grundy was also willing to grant an option to purchase the property for $8,000 at the expiration of five years. Such a plan would call for an expenditure, over a period of five years, of $12,000 or $15,000 for improvements and possible taxes and then, if acquired, an additional $8,000.

As I worked out the details it did not seem to be practicable thus to combine the two enterprises. The experiment would prove, in my judgment, too expensive, and might leave us with an obligation to support some guests for many years after the expiration of the five-year period. Also, it seems doubtful whether the Diocese should establish any additional homes in view of the modern social legislation, the old age pension, our own pension system, and the changed social conditions which these measures are creating. I am quite sure that it would be most unwise to open an entirely new and separate home. It would almost certainly eventually impose considerable burden on the Diocese if undertaken when the Endowment Fund produces such a low rate of income—an average of about 3%.

I also discussed with the surviving trustee the filling of the two vacancies in the trustees named in the will. This, you will recall, was suggested in a resolution. For an estate of this size and with an income as small as this one, such a number of trustees would seem to be unnecessary. At present the Germantown Trust Company is handling this estate for a sum somewhat less than $500 a year. In a recent letter received from Clarence C. Brinton, President of the Germantown Trust Company, is this statement:

> "It is our desire to co-operate with the Diocese in making the provisions of Mrs. Jefferies' will operative. The will does not provide, however, for succeeding Trustees and it would be necessary to go to Court to have them appointed. We do not think it is necessary and we would be reluctant to have it done. On the other hand we can understand that the Diocese would like to keep in touch with the situation, so if the Convention would care to appoint one or two representatives to act as advisers or consultants with the Trustee, we would welcome their advice and we would co-operate with them in working out plans for the ultimate opening of the home as provided for by Mrs. Jefferies' will. We believe this would serve the same purpose at less expense.

I favor Mr. Brinton's suggestion that this Convention name, or authorize the Bishop to name, two representatives of the Diocese to act as advisers or consultants with the Trustee. This will give opportunity, in the immediate future, for a more detailed study of the operations of the trust, and it may be that the advisers will be able to present to the Diocese some constructive plan for the use of this generous gift, perhaps in co-operation with some other work of the Diocese.

I, therefore, offer for the consideration of the Convention, the following reslution:

RESOLVED, That the Bishop of the Diocese be authorized to appoint two advisers or consultants to co-operate with the Germantown Trust Company, Trustee of the Elizabeth B. Jefferies Estate, in the management of that estate, and that they be requested to report annually to the Convention.

ROLAND S. MORRIS,
Chancellor of the Diocese.

Report of the Commission on the Forward Movement

The Forward Movement Commission in the Diocese of Pennsylvania united with the Commission on Evangelism in sponsoring a Quiet Day for the Clergy on Wednesday, January 24, 1940. The Meditations were conducted by the Rev. S. Tagart Steele, Jr., and held in St. George's Church, Ardmore. We are very grateful indeed to the Rector and congregation of St. George's in so generously offering us the facilities of the Parish for this occasion.

The Joint Commissions are at present planning for a Children's Mission to be held in as many Parishes and Missions as will co-operate during a week early in November. We hope to follow somewhat the same plan as we used in connection with the Diocesan Preaching Mission of Lent, 1939, in having a standard program for the Mission and supplying as much of the subject matter as possible. We believe that there is a great value in such a plan, the effectiveness of which was clearly demonstrated in the Diocesan Preaching Mission.

The Commission co-operated with the Commission on Evangelism in the series of Lenten Preaching Services held on Thursday evenings during Lent in Holy Trinity Church.

We are still one of the leading Dioceses in the distribution of Forward Day-by-Day booklets and other Forward Movement literature. The effective distribution of this material has been greatly helped by the kindness of the Reverend R. J. Morris and by the staff of the Department of Religious Education.

STANLEY V. WILCOX,
Chairman.

APPENDIX U

Report of the Commission on Church Work Among the Deaf

At the Convention of 1880 Bishop Stevens appointed a Commission to encourage and promote the then existing church work among the deaf in the Diocese. Your Commission is therefore now presenting its sixtieth annual report to the Convention. And every year we have been able to report something of interest. It has been a story, not of amazing advances but of steady and regular progress. Beginning with services in a private house, then haphazardly at various churches, the Mission secured and outgrew a church in the downtown area and finally built its present house of worship in Tioga.

During the year past, the missionary, the Rev. Henry J. Pulver, has conducted services regularly at All Souls' Church, and also at the missions in Trenton and Wilmington. Church classes for deaf children have been maintained at the Pennsylvania and New Jersey Schools for the Deaf. Missionary care has been given deaf people in various institutions. Aside from the regular offices of the Church, the missionary has served them as a social worker, with charity for the needy, advice on personal and economic problems, and aid in securing employment. An effort has been made to help them educationally by means of motion pictures and lectures. In a word, efforts are constantly being made to help these handicapped people in practical ways.

The work has suffered a great loss in the death of the Rev. Dr. J. D. McIlhenny. For many years he was Chairman of the Commission, and his service to this work extended over thirty years. Wise in his counsel, helpful in his service, and a true friend to the afflicted, he is missed by all.

Your attention is called especially to the need for structural repairs in the building. The edifice is fundamentally sound, but decay of the cement bond between the stones in various parts of the building permits a seepage of rainwater through the walls. To prevent serious damage, repairs are urgently needed. The Rectory also needs repairs. In all, about $500 will be required. Under present conditions it is impossible for the congregation to meet this extra expense. Be it remembered that in the best of times, deaf people, because of their handicap are all in the small wage-earner class; and in these times, which are certainly not the best, people who cannot hear have little chance to secure employment. Over half the people are unemployed and are dependent upon various forms of aid. By great effort they are able to meet the normal expenses of the Church, but it is simply beyond their ability to meet these unexpected expenses. The Commission would therefore appreciate aid from organizations or individuals wishing to aid it in meeting this emergency.

Respectfully Submitted,

ARTHUR MURRAY,
Chairman.

APPENDIX V

1. WHEREAS, The last will and testament of Helen N. Hotchkin, deceased, in section 3 thereof, contained the following provision:

"I give, devise and bequeath my house at the corner of Bustleton Avenue and Second Street, Feasterville, Bucks County, Pennsylvania, bequeathed to me by Agnes Belva Phillips, to the DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA in accordance with her wishes."

WHEREAS, "The Diocese of Pennsylvania" is the common designation given to the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, and

WHEREAS, Neither the Diocese of Pennsylvania nor the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania is a corporate or legal entity capable of disposing or otherwise dealing with title to the above devised real estate, and

WHEREAS, The Church Foundation, a corporation, is the Trustee designated by the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania to hold properties and funds for the purposes and works of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania,

RESOLVED, That the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania in this, its 165th annual session, hereby authorizes and empowers the Bishop of the Diocese as the Ecclesiastical Authority thereof, on behalf of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, to grant and convey the above-mentioned real estate situate at the corner of Bustleton Avenue and Second Street, Feasterville, Bucks County, Pennsylvania, to The Church Foundation, the Trustee heretofore designated by the Convention to hold properties and funds in trust for churches and charities in this Diocese, IN TRUST, NEVERTHELESS, to add said real estate to the properties and funds which The Church Foundation now holds in trust for the support of the Diocesan missionary work in the Diocese, and thereafter to hold and administer the same for said use and purpose, and with power in The Church Foundation to sell the same, with the approval of the Ecclesiastical Authority and the Executive Council of the Diocese, and hold the proceeds thereof for the same use and purpose.

2. WHEREAS, In accordance with the terms of a certain Agreement dated May 1, 1933, and filed in the Orphans' Court of Philadelphia County in the Matter of the Estate of Clara H. Matlack, Deceased, being No. 3798 of 1931; the said Court in its Adjudication in said Estate of July 11, 1938, as supplemented by its Supplemental Adjudication of April 28, 1939, on the account of Girard Trust Company, Executor of the said Estate of Clara H. Matlack, awarded a one-fourth share of the balance of principal of the said Estate of Clara H. Matlack to the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania; and

WHEREAS, As appears from the Schedule of Distribution filed with the said Orphans' Court in the above Estate on September 20, 1939, and approved by the said Court on September 20, 1939, the balance of principal of the said Estate of Clara H. Matlack in which the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania was thus awarded an undivided one-fourth interest, consists of the following property:

BONDS

$2,000 (C/D) Syracuse Rapid Transit Rwy. Company, 1st Mtge., Reg. Cpn. 5's, due 3/1/46

$1,500 Second Avenue Traction Comapny of Pittsburgh, 1st Mtge., Reg. 5's, due 12/1/34

$1,600 Electric and Peoples Traction Company Stock Trust Certificate, Reg. 4's, due 10/1/45

$2,000 Southwest Missouri Electric Railway Company, 1st Mtge., Cpn. 6's, due 9/1/28.

REAL ESTATE

Premises 2406 North Natrona Street, Philadelphia, Pa., and;

WHEREAS, As further appears from said Schedule of Distribution that the aforesaid property is now held by the said Girard Trust Company as agent for the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania and the other distributees as in the Schedule of Distribution set forth, for the purpose of liquidation of the corpus thereof and the collection and remittance of the income therefrom; and

WHEREAS, The Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania is not a legal entity capable of disposing of and otherwise dealing with real estate, and does not itself make a practice of holding title to and otherwise dealing with personal property used for the work of the Church; and

WHEREAS, The Church Foundation, a corporation, is the trustee designated by the Convention of the Diocese to hold title to properties and funds for the purposes and works of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese;

RESOLVED, That the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania in this, its 156th annual session, hereby authorizes and empowers the Bishop of the Diocese, as the Ecclesiastical Authority thereof, on behalf of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, to transfer, assign, grant and convey the said undivided one-fourth interest of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, in and to the aforesaid property constituting the balance of principal of the Estate of Clara H. Matlack, deceased, or any proceeds realized by the said Girard Trust Company in the liquidation thereof, unto The Church Foundation, the Trustee heretofore designated by the Convention of the Diocese to hold properties and funds in trust for churches and charities in this Diocese, IN TRUST, NEVERTHELESS, to add said undivided one-fourth interest in said property, or any proceeds realized by the said Girard Trust Company in the liquidation thereof, to the properties and funds which The Church Foundation now holds in trust for the support of the Diocesan Missionary Work in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, and thereafter to hold and administer the same for said use and purpose, and with power in The Church Foundation to join in the sale of the same, with the approval of the Ecclesiastical Authority and the Executive Council of the Diocese, and hold the proceeds thereof for the same use and purpose.

APPENDIX W

Report of the Special Committee on the Proposed Amendments to the Constitution sent down by the General Convention of 1937

MAJORITY REPORT

Your Committee would report that it has considered the proposed Amendments to the Constitution of the General Convention approved by the General Convention of 1937, and which will come up for final action at the coming session of that Convention. The Committee finds that the effect, and, doubtless, purpose of, these Amendments, will be to give to the Missionary Dsitricts, when the vote is on the adoption or rejection of any proposed Amendment to the Constitution of the General Convention, the same voting power which the Districts now have in voting on any other question when the vote is by orders, that is, the right to cast one-fourth of a vote. As the Constitution now stands the Districts have no vote on the question of amending the Constitution. But they can cast one-fourth of a vote when it is a question of amending the Book of Common Prayer. It is probably the result of accident rather than design that they are permitted to have a part in altering the Prayer Book but not in changing the Constitution. The proposed Amendments are designed to permit the Districts to vote on Constitutionsl changes.

Your Committee does not suggest that our Convention take any action on this proposal. It is of the opinion that the only persons who can vote intelligently on such questions are those who will be present at the General Convention and will hear the matter discussed by those thoroughly familiar with the whole subject, and it believes that we should trust our Deputies to listen to the discussion, form their own conclusions on the spot and vote in accordance with their convictions.

The Committee would, however, draw the attention of our Deputies to a possible ambiguity in the wording of the Constitutional provision in regard to voting on amendments if it is amended as proposed. In its provision in regard to voting on changes in the Prayer Book the Constitution definitely states that the Missionary Districts shall each have one-fourth of a vote. If the particle in regard to amendments to the Constitution is amended as proposed it will read that such amendments must receive "a majority of all the Clerical and Lay Deputies of all the Dioceses and of all the Missionary Districts entitled to representation in the House of Deputies voting by orders." Elsewhere in the Constitution it is provided that in all cases of a vote by orders the Missionary Districts shall have one-fourth of a vote. Presumanly, therefore, they would have only one fourth of a vote in voting on Constitutional matters. But if that is what it is intended it is somewhat to be regretted that it should not have been so stated, as it is in connection with voting on amendments to the Prayer Book. Your committee would suggest, therefore, that at the Convention our Deputies endeavor to assure themselves that there is no danger of this amendment giving the Missionary Districts more power in voting on Constitutional matters than they have when voting on other questions.

So far the Committee is a unit. But while two of the Committee can see no reason why the Amendment should not be adopted, if believed to be properly worded, the third member, Mr. Hawkes, feels that it ought not to be adopted, and for reasons stated in his minority report.

It is clear to the majority of the Committee that Mr. Hawkes' objections go far beyond the question before us, which is simply the proposal to give Missionary Districts the same vote on Constitutional matters that they have, and have had for some considerable time, on all other matters, and therefore they feel they they are not relevant. However, the Committee as a whole offer the following resolution for adoption by the Convention:

RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Convention be directed to have copies made of this report and of Mr. Hawkes' and sent to each of our Deputies to the coming General Convention.

F. C. HARTSHORNE
S. F. HOUSTON

MINORITY REPORT

To the Convention:

Gentlemen:

This Committee on Proposed Changes in the Constitution of the General Convention was appointed by the Bishop two years ago pursuant to a resolution of the Convention of 1938, to consider the proposed Amendment to Article XI to permit Deputies from Missionary Districts within the boundaries of the United States to vote upon the alteration or amendment of the Constitution.

No meeting of the Committee having been convened, its members were not able to discuss with each other the subject referred to them and the report thereon that should be made. In the report prepared by the Rev. Mr. Hartshorne he properly points out that the Article as it is proposed to be amended does not clearly limit the Deputies from Missionary Districts to a quarter vote in each order as is done in Article X.

There are, however, some other considerations that should be brought to the attention of the Convention.

Article V of the Constitution authorizes the formation, with the consent of the General Convention, of a new Diocese if it has six parishes and six presbyters canonically resident and each in charge of a congregation, and has a "suitable provision for the support of the Episcopate."

Article VI permits the House of Bishops alone to establish Missionary Districts, no minimum requirements stated.

The Journal of the General Convention of 1937 shows 74 Diocese, 20 "Domestic Missionary Districts," in which list are included Alaska, Honolulu, Panama Canal Zone, Philippine Islands, and Puerto Rico, and 10 Foreign Missionary Districts.

The majority of the members of our Church are in the larger and conservative Diocese along the Atlantic Seaboard. By the creation of a large number of small Diocese each with the same vote in the General Convention as one of the large Dioceses, the power of the large conservative Dioceses has been whittled down.

The JOURNAL of the Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania for 1939 shows 139 Parishes and 289 Clergymen. Disregarding all Missions and chapel congregations, the Diocese could readily be divided into a score or more of new Diocese of the constitutional size, each with a vote in the House of Bishops and a vote in each order in the House of Deputies.

When money is being raised for Missions our Diocese is told that it is expected to provide for all missionary work in its own territory and to give one tenth of the money for general missionary work.

But when it comes to voting on amendments to the Constitution or on the election of the people who spend the missionary money the Diocese of Pennsylvania has a single vote in each order, the same as the smallest of the 74 Diocese. This is unfair to the Clergy and people of this Diocese.

Any amendment to the Constitution which would further reduce the power of the Diocese from one seventy-fourth to one seventy-ninth of less would be injurious to the Diocese of Pennsylvania and the Church at large and ought to be defeated.

There is no good reason why a group of six parishes and six presbyters should become a Diocese and have a vote, but for a Missionary District, a still smaller group to have any vote at all is absurd. No Delegate from any organized Territory of the United States has ever had a vote in either House of Congress.

What is really needed, if it were possible, is to consolidate the miniature Dioceses into Dioceses of reasonable size so that the Church shall not be controlled by a minority of its members.

Respectfully submitted,
GEORGE B. HAWKES.
